59 Anno 24. H. 8. cap. 2. An Act was made concerning true dying of cloth, hats and caps, to endure to the last day of the next Parliament.

Dying Hats Caps

60 Where in the parliament holden at Westminster, in the fift and first yeare of the raigne of our late Soueraigne Lord King Edward the first (before 52.) there was by great deliberation and aduise, one good act made for the true and perfect making of woollen cloth within this realme, sithence the making whereof, diuers clothiers soũ themselues agreeued, alleadging that it is impossible for them to obserue the same act in all points, & haue in this present parliamẽt praied some mitigation thereof: It is therefore at their speciall instance and request, ordered, established, enacted and prouided in maner & forme following. In primis ẏ euery white cloth & clothes commonly called long Worcesters, & all like cloth of like making, mentioned in ẏ said act which by the same was limited to weigh lxxxiij pounds, being well scoured, thicked, milled and fully dried, shall weigh lxv. l. at the least: Itẽ euerie white cloth which shal be made in the counties of Wiltshire, Glocester, and Somerset, or any of them, or elsewhere, of like making, being appointed by the said Act to weigh lxiij. pounds, shall weigh being well scoured, thicked, milled, and fully dryed lxi. pounds at the least. This is altered in part after 68. Item euery broad cloth made in the Shires of Kent and Suller, or at the towne of Redding, or any of them, or elsewhere of like making, mentioned in the said Act, which by the same was limitted to weigh lxx. pounds at the least, shall weigh being well scowred, thicked, milled and fully dried lxxvi. pound at the least. Item that euerie course short cloth made in the Shires of Suffolke, Norffolke, and Esser, or any of them, or elsewhere of like sort, and euery course cloth to be made within the Shire of Kent, not exceeding the price of fiue pound, all which by the said Act are appointed to conteine seuen quarters of a yard at the least in bredth, shall conteine and be at the water, being thorow wet, fiue quarters and a halfe within the list, thorow, and by all the whole cloth at the least. Item euery yard of cloth commonly called handy warpe, being well scoured, thicked, milled, and fully dryed, shall conteine ẏ breadth specified in the said act, and shall weigh two pounds and a halfe at the least. And for asmuch as many persons doe counterfeit the making of Cocksal, Bocking and Braintree clothes, commonly called handwarps, adding thereunto such like list, as the makers of such clothes doe, to the great disceit of the King and Quenes Maiesties Subiects: Be it therefore enacted, that no person or persõs from the first day of May next comming, shal adde vnto any cloth or clothes any such list or lists, except the warpe thereof be spun vpon the rocke or distaffe, vpon paine of forfeiture of the same cloth or clothes, or the verie value thereof. The one moity of which forfeiture shall be to our Soueraigne Lady the Quéenes Maiesty, her heires and successors, and the other moity to him or them that wil sue for the same. 68 Whereas in the parliament holden at Westminster, in the v. and vj. yeres of the raigne of our late soueraigne Lord King Ed. the firt, one statute was made, intituled, An Act for the true making of woollen cloth, whereby (amongst other things) it was enacted, That all Whites and Reds which after the feast of Saint Michaell the Archangell then next comming, should be made in the Shires or Counties of Wiltshire, Glocester and Somerset, or any of them, or elsewhere of like making, and all other Whites which should be made in anie other parts of this realme of England, and not before in the same Statute remembred, should containe in length, being thorow wet, betweene fire and eight and twenty yards, and should be seuen quarters of the yard in breadth within the lists at the least, and listed according to the ancient custome, and being well scoured, thicked, milled and fully dryed, should weigh euery peece lviij. pounds being white, and lx. l. being coloured at the least, as by the said Act among diuers clauses, articles, and prouisions contained in the same, more plainely is expressed. And

whereas also in the Parliament holden at Westminster in the fourth and fift yeares of the reignes of our late soueraigne Lord and Lady King Philip and Quæne Mary, one other Statute was made, intituled, An Act touching the making of woollen clothes, whereby also (among other things) it was ordained, established, enacted, and prouided, That euery white cloth which should be made in the cõties of Wiltshire, Glocester, and Somerset, or any of them, or elsewhere, of like making, appointed by the said Acte made in the said fift and sixt yeares of King Edward the sixt, to weigh three score and foure pounds, should weigh being well scoured, thicked, milled, and fully dried, three score and one pound at the least, with a prouision in the same last recited Act contained, That no person or persons should incurre the danger, penalty, or forfeiture limited and appointed for any offence in the said former recited Act, which was mitigated or otherwise appointed by the said Act made in the fourth and fift yeares of King Philip and Quæne Marie, as by the same Act amongst diuers clauses, articles, and prouisoes therein contained, more plainely is expressed: Sithence the making of which said seuerall Statutes, though the makers of the said cloths haue indeuoured themselues according to their best skill and industrie to performe and fulfil the said recited statutes in euery of their clothes, as much as in them did lie, as touching the breadth of clothes, and to that end and purpose haue allowed and doe allow so much yarne and stuffe to euerie such cloth as might sufficiently serue to make all the saide clothes full out in length and breadth, according to the said former Statute made in the fift and sixt yeares of King Edward the sixt, and in weight according to the said braunch of the said statute, made in the fourth and fift yeares of the reignes of the late King Philip and Quæn Mary: yet notwithstanding many times by reason of the diuerse natures in the woolles, and by great diuersities in the spinning, carding and milling, many of the said clothes made within the saide Counties of Wiltshire, and Glocester and Somerset and Dron. and elsewhere of like making, doe not conteine full vij. quarters in breadth, according to the said Statute made in the fift and sixt yeares of King Edward the sixt, and do not hold their full weight, or more, according to the former statute made in the time of the said King Philip and Quæne Mary, and no default touching the breadth can iustly be imputed to the maker thereof, for that the same Clothmakers (as experience daily sheweth) cannot obserue the said former Statutes in all the said Clothes as touching the breadth, although they indeuour themselues neuer so much thereunto: which Clothes not containing their full Assise in breadth, as is aforesaid, are many times taken and seised by the Searchers of London, when they come to their Market at Blackewelhall, to the great losse and damage of the said Clothmakers, and to the great hindrance of Cloth making within the said Counties: In consideration whereof, albeit it is not hereby intended to repeale or make voide the said former recited Estatutes, or either of them, otherwise then is hereafter expressed: Yet neuertheless be it enacted by the Quæenes most excellent Maiestie, with the assent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons, &c. That no person or persons shall be hereafter charged for any such default which hereafter shall be in any of the saide Clothes mentioned in this Act for want of breadth of seuen quarters, so that the same Cloth doe containe in breadth, being thorowly wet, sixe quarters and a halfe at the least within the lists vnwrought and listed, according to the auncient custome: any thing in any of the said former statutes mentioned to the contrarie in anie wise notwithstanding: Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any of the said Clothes shall not containe sixe quarters and a halfe at the least within the listes, as aforesaid, that then euery person offending in that behalfe, shall for euerie such Cloth be subiect to such paines, penalties and forfeitures, as were by force of the former recited statute of the fift and sixt yeares of King Edward the sixt, to haue been forfeited for want of breadth of vij. quarters within the lists. And be it neuertheless enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any cloth to be made within the said Counties or elsewhere of like making, called Narrow listed Whites, being well scoured, thicked, milled, and fully dried, shall containe in weight any lesse then three score & one pounds at the least, or if any cloth to be made within any of the said counties or elsewhere of like making, called Broad listed Whites, being well scoured, thicked, milled, and fully dryed, shall containe in weight any lesse then three score and three pounds at the least, or if any of the said clothes called Narrow listed or Broad listed Whites, shall containe in length any more then eight and twenty yardes at the most: That then euerie of the said Clothiers therein offending, shall incurre double such penalties and forfeitures for euerie pound so wanting of the seuerall weights aboue limited, and for euery yard so exceeding in length, & not weighing after such rate, as is before expressed, as by the said Statute of the fourth and fift yeares of King Philip and Quæn Mary is prouided and appointed: This Act to endure and continue for the space of fiue yeares next after the end of the session of this present Parliament, and from the end of the saide fiue yeares, vntill the end of the next Session of Parliament then next ensuing. 69 Whereas in the Parliament vpon Prorogation holden at Westminster the three and twentieth of January in the fift yeare of the reigne of the late King of famous memory Edward the sixt, one Act was made for true making of woollen Clothes: By which Act amongst other things it was enacted, That from, and after the Feast of Saint Michaell the Archangell next ensuing the making of the said Act, no person or persons should put any haire, flore or any yarne of Lambes woll into any cloth, kersey, frize, or cotton, made and sold, or offred to be sold, as in the said Act is expressed, vpon paine to forfeit euery such cloth, kersey, frize and cotton, wherein any such yarne, haire or flox should be put, as the value of such cloth, kersie, frize or cotton, as by the said Act it doth and may appeare. And whereas by another Act made in the parliament holden at Westminster in the seuenth yeare of the reigne of the said late King, intituled, An Act for the making of plaine white streits, and pinned white streits in Deuon and Cornewall, the said former Act was altered, and libertie giuen to the makers of the said clothes called Plaine White Streits and pinned White Streits, to vse, in making of the said clothes, flore, haire, or yarne made of Lambes woll, and by the said Statute diuerse rules and orders were appointed for making of the said Clothes called Plaine White Streits, and Pinned White Streits, as by the said Statute doth appeare: Now for that the orders and rules both by the said statute made in the said fift yeere, as also in the said seuenth yeare of the said late King Edward the first, tend to the vtter vndoing and decay of great numbers and multitudes of people, which liue by the trade of Clothing, and are not profitable any longer to be kept in these Countries and places, where the said Clothes called Plaine White Streits and Pinned White Streits are vsually made, the same Clothes being but a base and course kinde of Clothes, vsually made for the vse of poore people beyond the seas, and most commonly shipped into Britaine, & there vttered for a marchandize to serue the vse of the poore sort there: And especially for that sithence the making of the said statutes, the yarne wherewith the said cloths called Plaine White Streits and Pinned White streits are vsually made, to the great benefite of the poore people where the same are made, is growen smaller and finer, whereby many more poore people are set on worke with spinning of the same, then either at or before the making of any the said seuerall statutes they were, so that the weight, length, and breadth cannot agree, as before it did in making of the said Clothes. Be it therefore enacted &c. That the Branch made in the said fift yeere, which prohibiteth putting of haire, flore, or yarne made of Lambs woll into any cloth or frize, hauing regard vnto the said Clothes called Plaine White streits and Pinned white streits, be vtterly repealed and made voide. And that the said statute also made in the seuenth yeere of the reigne of the said late King, and euery Braunch, Article and clause therein, be from henceforth vtterly repealed and void for euer. And that it be further enacted, that frō henceforth it shall be lawfull to all and euery the M. Maiesties subiects inhabiting, or which hereafter shal inhabit within the said counties of Deuon and Cornwall, as well in Townes corporate, Market Townes or elsewhere, to weaue and make the said clothes called Plaine White streits and Pinned White streits, and to vse and occupy in the making of the said Clothes called Plaine White streits, and Pinned White streits, flore, haire and yarne made of Lambes woll, and to haue and keepe and vse in his or their houses three Looms, and not aboue for making of the Clothes aforesaid, and to make the same Clothes of such length, weight and breadth, as the Marchant shall like or accept, to buy the same for Marchandizes, or appoynt the same to be made for the vse and most acceptable allowance of the Countrey people where the same shalbe transported for Marchandizes, for that in truth none of the same are worn or occupied within this Realme: the said statute made in the fift yeare of the reigne of the saide late King Edward the first, or any other Laive or Statute heretofore made to the contrary notwithstanding. Prouided alwayes, that in defrauding, of her Maiesties custome, no peece of the said Clothes shal be made aboue twelue pounds in weight, or aboue fourteene yards in length, or one yard in breadth, vpon paine of forfeiture of al such cloths made ouer & aboue the said length, breadth, or weight, or the value thereof: the one moity to the M. maiesty her heires and successors: and the other moity thereof to him that wil sue for the same by writ, bil, plaint, or information in any court of record, wherein no essoin, protection or wager of law shal be allowed. An. 27. El. ca. 18. Customs

70 Be it enacted and ordained by the authority of this present Parliament, That it shalbe lawfull to and for all and euery such person or persons which now do inhabite or dwel, or that hereafter shal inhabite or dwell in the Townes or Villages of Worsted and Langham, now vsing or exercising, or that hereafter shal vse or exercise the feate or mystery of making, weauing, or rowing of cloth or kersey by the space of seuen yeares at the least, or haue beene or shal be hereafter prentice thereunto by the space of seuen yeares, to inhabite and dwell in the said Townes or Villages of Worsted and Langham, and there to vse the making, weauing, or rowing of cloth or kersey, as before the making of the Statute of the fourth and fift yeares of the reigne of King Philip & Queene Mary they might haue done, and as the said Act had neuer beene had nor made: Any thing in the said act to the contrary thereof made, or any other Act, statute or law heretofore made, to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding. An. 27. El. ca. 23. Prentis

71 Whereas in the Parliament holden at Westminster in the fift and sixt years of the reigne of our late soueraigne Lord King Edward the first, one Statute was made, intituled, An Act for the true making of woollen cloth, (which see before 53.) whereby (among other things) it was enacted, That al broad plunkets, azures, blewes, and other coloured cloth, which after the Feast of saint Michael the Archangel then next comming, should be made within the shires of Wiltshire, Glocester, or Somerset, or elsewhere of like making, should containe in length, being thorow wette, betweene fiue and twenty and eight and twenty yards, yard and inch of the Rule, and should be seuen quarters within the lists at the least, and listed according to the ancient custome, and being wel scoured, thicked, milled, and fully dried, should weigh three score and eight pound the peece at the least, as by the said Act among diuers clauses, articles and prouisions conteined in the same, more plainly is expressed: sithence the making of which Statute, although the makers of the said coloured clothes, haue endeuored themthemselues according to their best skil & industrie, to performe and fulfil the said recited Statute in euery of their clothes, as much as in them dooth lie, as touching the breadth of cloths, and to that end and purpose haue alowed and dos alow so much yarne and stuffe to euery such cloth as might sufficiently serue to make al the said coloured clothes ful out in length, breadth, and weight, according to the said statute made in the fift and sirt yeers of King Edward the sirt: Yet notwithstanding many times by reason of the diuerse natures in the wools, and by the great diuersities in the spinning, carding & milling, many of the said coloured Cloths made within the said countie of Somerset and elsewhere of like making, do not containe ful vij. quarters in breadth according to the Statute made in the fift and sirt yeares of king Edward the sirt, and yet no default touching the said breadth can iustly be imputed to the maker thereof, for that the said clothmakers (as experience daiely sheweth) can not obserue the said former statute in all the said cloths as touching the breadth, although they indeuour themselues neuer so much thereunto, which clothes not containing their full assize in breadth as is aforesaid, are many times taken & seised by the Searchers of London, when they come to their market at Blackwel hall, to the great losse & damage of the said clothmakers, and to the great hindrance of cloth making within the said county. In consideration whereof, albeit it is not hereby intended, to repeale or make void the said former recited statute, otherwise then is hereafter expressed: Yet neuertheles be it enacted by the Queens most excellent Maiestie, with the assent of the Lords spiritual and temporal, and the commons of this present Parliament assembled, and by the authoritie of the same, that no person or persons shalbe hereafter charged for any such default, which hereafter shal be in any of the said broad plunkets, azures, blewes, or other coloured clothes for want of breadth of seuen quarters, so that the same cloth dos containe in breadth being thorowly wette, sire quarters and an halfe at the least within the Lystes vnwrought, and lysted according to the auncient custome: any thing in the said former recited Statute mentioned to the contrarie in any wise notwithstanding. Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That if any of the said clothes shal not containe sire quarters and an halfe at the least within the Lystes as is aforesaid, that then euery person offending in that behalf shal for euery such cloth be subiect to such paines, penalties and forfeitures, as were by force of the former recited statute of the fift and sirt years of King Edward the sirt, to haue beene forfeited for want of breadth of seuen quarters within the Lystes. And be it neuertheleste enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if anie of the said broade plunkets, azures, blewes, or other coloured clothes, being wel scoured, thicked, milled, and fully dried, shal containe in weight any lesse then three score and eight pound at the least, that then euery of the said clothiers therein offending, shall incurre double such penalties & forfeitures for euery pound so wanting of the said weight, and not weighing after such rate as is before expressed in and by the said Statute, made in the fift and sirt yeares of king Edward the sirt limited and appointed. And be it neuertheleste enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if any of the clothes to be made within the County of Somerset or elsewhere, of like making, called Plunkets, Azures, and Blewes, being wel scoured, thicked, milled, and fully dryed, shal containe in weight any lesse then three score and eight pound at the least: or if anie of the said Clothes shall containe in length anie more then seuen and twenty yards at the most, that then euery of the same Clothiers therein offending shal incurre double such penalties and forfeitures for euery pound so wanting, as by the said Statute of the said fift and sirt yeres of the reigne of K. Edw. the sirt, are to such defaults limited and appointed, and for euery yard that any such cloth shal containe aboue seuen and twenty yards in length, and not weighing after such a rate as before is expressed, the maker of euery such cloth shall incurre double the penalties by the statute of the iij. and v. yeares of the reignes of King Philip and Quéene Marie (which see before 60.) to such defaults limited and appointed. Anno 35. Eli. ca. 9.

72 It may be enacted, that from and after the first day of July now next comming, each kersey called Deuonshire Kersie or Dozen which shall be made & wouen within the said Countie of Deuon, or any other County next adioyning thereunto being raw, vnscoured, vntucked and vnwette, as it commeth from the weauers beame, & being made of cleane & perfect stuffe, that is to wit, of woll shorne, clensed, and thorowly washed or scoured after the shearing & before the weauing, without any fraud, deceit, policy, or deuice, or any stuffe thereunto deceitfully or vnlawfully added in the working, or after the working thereof, for increase of the weight, shal weigh in the Market xvj. l. or vpwards. And that from and after the said first day of July, euery raw Deuonshire kersey or dozen, from henceforth to be wouen & made in the said County of Deuon, or any of the other Counties adioyning, being a Rudgewash kersey, that is to say, being made of fleece woll washed onely on the sheepes backe, and the woll not being cleansed, washed, and scoured after it is shorne & before it is wouen, shal (without any fraud, deceit, policie, deuice or additiõ of stuffe whatsoeuer to increase the weight thereof) weigh in the market xvij. l. at the least, being raw as it commeth off the weauers beame, & euery and euery of the same Deuonshire kersies or dozens so being raw, & as it commeth forth of the weauers leme (without racking, stretching, streining, or other deuice to increase the length ther of) shal containe in length betwen xv. & xvj. yards by the measure of yard & inch by the Rule, without which obseruation of weight being raw, they cannot fall out (after they be wel scoured, thicked & fully dried) to contain the length and weight expressed and limited in the Statute of the 4. and 5. yeare of Ph. and Ma. viz. xij. yards in length, and xij. l. in weight, and hath beene sufficiently made knowne and testified to her Highnesse priuie Counsell. And if any weauer shall worke or make any of the said kinds of kersies of lesse weight or measure then is before mentioned after their kinde, euery such offendor shall forfeit for euerie quarter of a pound in weight which any of the said raw kersies or dozens which shalbe brought to any market, or sold, or offered to be sold, shall want of their weight aforesaid xy. s. And for euery quarter of a yard which shal be wanting in length of either sort of the said kersies likewise being sold or offered to be sold, xy. s. And that each sort of the said kersies or dozens shal be sewantly wouen throwout of wel and like sorted yarne. And that no weauer shall vse any deceitfitie in the bignes and godnes of his yarne in any part of the said kersies, sauing only in the liste, nor vse any other practise in edging or weauing of anie the same kersies or dozens to make the same seeme finer nere the edge or liste, then in other part of the same cloth. And that it may be further enacted by the authority aforesaide, That each Weauer shal weaue his shop-marke of some coloured yarne in the end of euerie kersie, which he shal hereafter weaue or make, and shal also at each end of euery of the same kersies, weaue one purcel likewise of coloured yarne, of the breth of three quarters of an inch at the least, whereby the deceitfull cutting & diminishing of such clothes by Tuckers or Fullers heretofore vsed, may hence forth be preuented. For redreſſe of which fraude, and to the intent the ſaid practiſe may hereafter be the better diſcouered (which being cloſely and ſecretly done by the offenders, will otherwiſe hardly be found out) and that the ſaid practiſe, according to the true intent and meaning of the ſaide former ſtatute, be henceforth vtterly abolished: Be it therefore ordained and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parliament, That if any perſon ſhalbe ſo ſuſpected to offend, then any Juſtice or Juſtices of peace of the ſame County, where the ſaid ſuppoſed offender ſhal dwel, if he dwel out of a corporat towne or city, and if he dwel within any corporate towne or city, then the Maior, Bayliſe, or other head officer, being a Juſtice of peace of ſuch corporate towne or citie, where ſuch ſuppoſed offender ſhal dwell, vpon notice and information to him or them giuen in that behalfe, ſhal by authoritie of this Act, by his or their warrant, or other commandement, cauſe to come before him or them, the ſeruants and workemen of ſuch ſuppoſed offenders, and other perſons able to diſcloſe the ſame deceit, and them to examine by their oth or otherwiſe, and if vpon the ſame examination they ſhall finde any perſon or perſons, after the firſt day of Febr. next inſuing, to haue vſed or cauſed to be vſed in the dying or coloring of any cloth, woll, yarn, grogerain, buffins or ſilke, or any thing made of woollen yarn or ſilke, any Logwood, alias Blockewood, or now or heretofore reputed and taken for Logwood, alias Blockewood, that then the Juſtices or Juſtice, Maior, Bailife, or other head officer, being a Juſtice of peace ſhal not only bind with ſurety al ſuch perſon or perſons, whom they ſhal find ſo ſuſpected to haue offended, & ſuch others as may diſcouer the ſame offence, to the next quarter ſeſſions or gaole deliuery, which ſhall happen to be holden for that county, city or towne corporate, but alſo to certifie all ſuch examinations & depoſitions, as tend to the finding out or diſcouery of the ſaid offences, at the ſaid gaole deliuery or quarter ſeſſions: And alſo if any ſuch perſon ſo ſuſpected to haue offended vpon examination aforeſaid, ſhal refuſe to be bound as aforeſaid, then the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo refuſing to be committed to the next gaole, there to remaine, til he, ſhe, or they, ſhal ſo become bound with ſuerties. And that the ſaid Juſtices of aſſiſe, or Juſtices of peace, at ſuch gaole deliuery or quarter ſeſſions ſhal haue authority by this act, to indict & try the offendors, by the vſuall courſe of indictments & trials in like caſes. And after ſuch conuiction to adiudge the ſaid offenders to be ſet openly on the Pillory in the ſaid city, or market towne where the ſame offence ſhal be committed. And if it ſhal not be in any market towne, then in the next market towne adioyning in the ſame county, there to continue by al the time of the market, one or more daies by their diſcretion, for euery ſuch offence: and further that euery ſuch offender, beſide his ſaid corporal puniſhment, ſhal forfeit for euery ſuch offence, the ſumme of xx. l. Durham.

AN Act (not printed) was made in Anno 7. E. 6. whereby the Bishopricke of Durham was dissolued, and that the King should haue the lands and hereditaments thereof, and another Act was made in Anno 7. And that euerie such writ of Proclamation so to be hereafter awarded to such Bishop or Chancelor of the said Bishoprick or County Palantine, shall haue the same Teste and day of returne, as the Exigents whereupon euery such writ of Proclamation shall bee awarded shall haue: And that euerie such Bishop or Chauncelor, to whom any of the sayd writ or writs of Proclamation shall bee directed, shall by his or their Mandat, directed to the Sherife of the sayd Countie Palantine, cause Proclamation to bee made of the same writs of Proclamation, according to the tenor of the same, and shall make true returnes of the same, in such Court or Courts, and before such Justices as the tenor of the same writ and writs of Proclamation shal require and demaund. At which tryals, for the better diſcoueric of the truth, and for the better information of the conſciences of the Iurie and Iuſtices, there ſhall be allowed vnto the partie ſo arraigned, the benefit of ſuch witneſſes onely to be examined vpon oath, that can be produced for his better clearing and iuſtification, as hereafter in this Act are permitted and allowed. And be it further enacted &c. That euery Iuſtice of Peace of the Counties aforeſaid, vpon whom complaint ſhal be made, ſhall haue full power and authoritie, by vertue of this Act, to bind ouer by Recogniſance in a conuenient ſumme taken to his Maieſties vſe, as well the partie proſecuting, as any witneſſes, which hee ſhall deſire to produce (ſo as the ſaid witneſſes may haue their reaſonable charges firſt tendred vnto them) to proſecute and giue in euidence before ſuch his Maieſties Iuſtices, as aforeſaid, as the caſe ſhall require. And be it &c. That euerie commander, procurer, counſellor, abettor, comforter, receiuer, or other acceſſarie of or to any the offendors or offences aforeſaid ſo committed in Scotland, as aforeſaid, offending within the Realmes of England or Scotland, ſhal be proceeded withall, indicted, tryed, iudged, and executed without delay, notwithſtanding the principals, or any of them, be not conuicted, or attainted: And that no ſuch offendor, either acceſſarie or principall, ſhall be allowed the benefit of his Clergie, nor admitted to his peremptorie challenge of aboue the number of fiue. And that euerie Indictment of any of the offences aforeſaid ſo committed as aforeſaid, ſhall be adiudged of as good force in Law, notwithſtanding the words (Contra pacem, Coronam, & dignitatem noſtras) be omitted, as if the ſaid words had beene therein contained. And be it further enacted, That no Shiriſe, Vnderſhiriſe, or other miniſter, to whom it appertaineth, ſhall returne any Iuror to enquire of, or trie any of the offences aforeſaid, ſo committed as aforeſaid, except euerie ſuch Iuror ſhall haue freehold in poſſeſſion, to the value of fiue pounds by the yeare in the Countie, where ſuch enquirie and tryall ſhall be, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie Iuror that ſhall be returned contrarie to this Act, the ſumme of fortie pounds: The one moitie to the Kings Maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, the other to the partie that will ſue for the ſame by action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Maieſties Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoine, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed: And that the offendor ſhall and may challenge any Iuror that ſhall paſſe vpon his life, for want of ſuch freehold, as aforeſaid. Prouided alwayes, and be it &c. That no naturall ſubiect of his Maieſtie of the Realme of England, or of the Dominions of the ſame, ſhall for any the offences aforeſaid, committed within the Realme of Scotland, or for being acceſſarie to the ſame, forfeit any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, either free, copie, or cuſtomarie hold, neither ſhall the bloud of ſuch offendor be corrupted, nor the wife loſe her Dower: yet neuertheleſſe, the ſaid offendors ſhal forfeit to his Maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, their goods, chattels, and credits whatſoeuer. Iuſtice or Commiſſioner ſhall haue full power and authoritie, to bind ouer as well the ſaid partie complaining or proſecuting, as any witneſſes that he ſhall deſire to produce (ſo as their reaſonable charges be firſt tendred vnto them) by Recogniſance in a conuenient ſumme to his Maieſties vſe, to proſecute and giue in euidence within the Realme of Scotland, wherein if default ſhall be made, and the ſame proued by certificate or otherwiſe before the Lord Treaſurer, Chauncellor, and Barons of the Eſchequer, or any of them in the Eſchequer Chamber, and a Decree there made, that the ſame Recogniſance ſhall ſtand forfeited, Then the Court of Eſchequer ſhall thereupon proceede for the leuying of the debt of the ſaid Recogniſance, as if it were adiudged forfeited by the courſe of the common Law. And be it &c. That on the other part, euery of his Maieſties ſubiects of the Realme of Scotland, either partie grieued, or witneſſe, which ſhall proſecute in any the caſes aforeſaid, within the Realme of England, and thereby ſhall haue occaſion to make his repaire hither, either voluntarily, or by the like Bond, as is before expreſſed, on the part of the Realme of England, ſhall haue and enioy Priuiledge and immunitie from all manner of Arreſts, concerning all offences or other cauſes, as well capitall, as others, committed, done, or occaſioned, before he ſhall ſo come into England, as aforeſaid (except treaſon or wilfull murther) ſo long as he or they ſhalbe neceſſarily going, comming or abiding, within the ſaid Realme of England, for the proſecution of the ſaid Offenders. Prouided neuertheleſſe, That euery ſuch offence ſo committed as aforeſaid, ſhall be layed & alledged in the Indictment or other declaration, to be done and committed in the Realme of Scotland, according to the trueth of the fact, and not in the Counties, where the triall is limitted, to be had and made as aforeſaid, any thing in this Act formerly contained to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Prouided alſo, &c. That if any his Maieſties Subiects of the Realme of Scotland ſhall be proceéded with and tryed in the Realme of Scotland, vpon the proſecution of any partie grieued, and vpon euidence in open Court for any offence done or committed within the Realme of England, that no ſuch perſon ſhall be eſſoines called in queſtion, or proceéded with for the ſame fact within the Realme of England, but that it ſhall be lawfull for euerie ſuch perſon to plead and alleage for himſelfe vpon his arraignment, that he was formerly lawfully acquited, conuicted, or attainted of the ſame offence within the Realme of Scotland, And that thereupon all further proceéding ſhall ſtay vntill the Court haue ſufficiently informed themſelues by Certificate from the Realme of Scotland, or by any other good wayes and meanes of the truth of the ſaid allegations, which if they ſhall finde true, the ſaid perſon ſhall bee forthwith diſcharged of all further impeachment or proceéding. And be it &c. That no naturall borne Subiect of the Realme of England, or the Dominions of the ſame, ſhall for any high Treaſon, Miſpriſion, or concealement of high Treaſon, petie Treaſon, or any other whatſoeuer offence, or cauſe committed within Scotland, be ſent out of England, where he is apprehended, to receiue his tryall, vntill ſuch time as both Realmes ſhall be made one in Lawes and Gouernment; which is the thing ſo much deſired, as that wherein the full perfection of the bleſſed Union, alreadie begun in his Maieſties royall perſon, conſiſteth. And becauſe there is ſo great reaſon to feare, that the partialitie and corruptions of many that liue in thoſe parts, through their long and euill courſe of life, cannot but produce much and frequent periurie at ſuch tryals, as aforeſaid, if the Iurie in their proceéding doe not vſe great wiſedome and circumſpection, in which reſpect it is moſt iuſt and neceſſarie to prouide, as well that the guiltie ſhall not eſcape, as that the innocent ſhall not be condemned, Be it therefore prouided and enacted &c. That at all ſuch tryals, the Iurors then and there ſworne, or the greater part of them (who in reſpect of the great truſt and charge which muſt now be layed vpon them, are by vertue of this Act, as before appeareth, to be perſons of better condition and qualitie, then the Law required heretofore for Iurors in tryals of like offences) ſhall haue in their power and election, according to their conſcience and diſcretion, vpon their oathes, to receiue and admit onely ſuch ſufficient, good, and lawfull witneſſes vpon their oathes, either for or againſt the partie arraigned, as ſhall not appeare to them, or the greater part of them, to be vnfit and vnworthie to be witneſſes in that caſe, either in regard of their hatred and malice, or their fauour and affection, either to the partie proſecuting, or to the partie arraigned, or of their former euill life and conuerſation. Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted, That if the offendor in any the caſes aforeſaid ſhall bee a Peére of the Realme, then his tryall therein ſhall be by his Peéres, as is vſed in caſes of Felonie or Treaſon, and not otherwiſe. The King commaundeth that all maner of bailifes, Shiriſes, and other miniſters, as wel the Juſtices of Cheſter, and other Bailifes there, as other, ſhall of their receits of iſſues, of wardes, of eſcheats, and of their Bailywikes, be anſwerable in the Eſchequer, and there ſhal make accompt to the Treaſorer and Barons of the ſame place. And that all Sherifes, Farmors, Baylifes of Franchiſes, and other which ought to come at the proffer of the Eſchequer, the next day after the feaſt of Saint Michael, and the next day after the clauſe of Eaſter, for to pay their farms, rents, and iſſues belonging to the King, ſhal come at the foreſaid termes, and bring the foreſaid farms, rents, and iſſues due, wholy into the Eſchequer, as before is mentioned. And if any make default, their bodies ſhall remaine without departing from thence, vntil they haue paied or made agreement. And he that will not come at the termes aforeſaid, ſhall be amerced after the cuſtome of the Eſchequer. And the Sherifes and Baylifes at the ſame termes, ſhall bring and pay ſuch money as they haue receiued of the ſummons of the Eſchequer, and other the Kings debts. And ſhall be prepared and ready to make ſhew of their accompt of the things aforeſaid. And that all Bailifes of Franchiſes which ought to leuy the K. debts, & to anſwer to the Sherifes at their commandement, according to the extreats of the ſummons of the Eſchequer, ſhall come and anſwer ſufficiently, And ſuch as doe not, their bodies ſhall remaine in the ward of the Sherifes, and for their default, the ſherifes ſhal cauſe the debts to be leuied by their owne Baylifes, as they may, as they haue vſed to do in time paſt. And if the Baylifes do not come at the day that the Sherifes ſhal giue them knowledge of, the Sherifes ſhal enter into the ſame franchiſes, and leuy the debts in the ſame maner. Concerning the Juſtices of Cheſter and the Bailifes thereof, the King willeth that they, or one of them ſhall come at the proffer of Saint Michaell euerie yeare, and bring aſmuch as they owe vnto the king at that terme, & at the proffer of the Vtas of Eaſter they ſhal come likewiſe and bring in that that they owe to the king for that terme. And the Juſtices of Cheſter ſhal haue day to accompt from yeare to yeare in quindena Paſchæ, and the Bailifes thereof the next day after the clauſe of Eaſter. And that all Sherifes of England, except the Sherifes of Weſtmerland, Lancaſter, Worceſter, Rutland, and Cornewall, ſhall from henceforth keepe al ſuch Wardes and Eſcheats which be not in the fees belonging to the King, which be within their ſhires, and of the iſſues thereof they ſhal anſwere truely in the Eſchequer at the termes aforeſaid. And at their Turnes that they ſhall make in their ſhires, they ſhal do the offices of ſuch other things as the kings Eſcheators haue vſed to doe, for that that belongeth vnto the King, once or twice in the yeere, to as little grieuance of the people as they can, And the ſherifes ſhal ſeiſe the Eſcheats that fall, to remaine vnto the King in fee, and ſhall certifie the King of them without delay. And the King ſhall aſſigne three able perſons, that ſhall goe throughout the Realme to ſuruey and extend the Wardes and Eſcheats aforeſaid from yeere to yeere, when they ſhal thinke requiſite. And the ſherifes by their Councell ſhall improue and let to farme, or otherwiſe, ſuch wardes and eſcheats, as they ſhal thinke moſt for the Kings aduantage. And touching the fiue ſhires before named, the King will, that the Sherife of Cumberland ſhall execute the office of the Eſcheator in the ſhires of Weſtmerland and Lancaſter. And the Sherife of Nottingham in Rutland, and the ſherife of Gloceſter in Worceſter, and the ſherife of Deuonſhire in Cornewall, and ſhal ſafely keepe his wardes and eſcheats in the ſame ſhires, and ſhal anſwere in the Eſchequer for the iſſues of them, as for their owne ſhires. And the three perſons aforeſaid, ſhall ſuruey and extend ſuch wardes and eſcheats, as well there as in other places, and they ſhalbe improued by their councell. And when the ſherifes do accompt for their ſhires, they ſhal alſo accompt for ſuch wards and eſcheats. And in like maner ſhal the Juſtices of Cheſter doe, and their Bailifes alſo, euery one for his bailiwike. And the ſaid three perſons ſhall keep the Kings demeanes, and ſhall approue them as they ſhal think beſt for the Kings aduantage, and ſhalbe anſwerable for the iſſues, and they ſhall haue power to let forth ſmall manors or demeans, to the folke of the ſame places, or to other, according to their diſcretion, for a certaine farme from yeere to yeere, as they ſhall thinke moſt to the K. profit. And the farmors ſhall anſwere their farmes vnto thoſe principall approuers, and they at the Eſchequer, the next day after the Aſcenſion, from yeare to yeare. And the principall Collectors of the cuſtome of wolls, at the two termes before mentioned, ſhall pay all ſuch mony as they haue receiued of the ſaid cuſtome, and ſhall make accompt from yeare to yeare plainely of all parcells receiued in any of the Portes or other places of the Realme, ſo that they ſhall anſwer of euery ſhip where it was charged, and how much it carried, and whoſe the wolls were, and of euerie other loading in the ſhip, whereof Cuſtome is due, and of the whole receipt. And the Warden of the Kings Wardrobe, ſhall make accompt yearely in the Eſchequer, in the Feaſt of Saint Margaret. And the Treaſorer and Barons ſhall be charged by their oath, that they ſhall not attend to heare the pleas or matters of other men, whiles they haue to doe with the Kings buſineſſe, if it be not matter that concerneth the Kings owne debt. And that the Conſtable, Marſhal, Chamberlaine, and other that are of ſée in the Eſchequer, from henceforth ſhal preſent vnto the King ſuch as they ſhal put in their places to doe their Offices, which muſt be of good fame and ſufficient, for whoſe acts themſelues will anſwere. And the King commandeth the treaſorer and barons of the Eſchequer vpon their allegeance, and by the oath that they haue made to him, that they ſhall not admit others for them, that be not ſuch. And that the Eſchequer be not charged with moe perſons then is neceſſary. And that none of them that be there ſworne to the king, ſhall put in his rome any other Clerke or lay perſon except he be ſworne, nor that without the ſpeciall licence of the Treaſorer, and if anie doe ſo, hée ſhall be forthwith remoued from his office, and that none other be receiued in his ſtead without the Kings licence. And if any that ſhall be put in without the Treaſorers licence, doe treſpaſſe, hée ſhalbe neuertheleſſe puniſhed, and hée alſo that put him in, according to the treſpaſſe. And if both be inſufficient, their ſuperiour ſhall be puniſhed, whether hée be officer of ſée or other. And the Treaſorer ſhall put no other in his rome, vntill hée hath licence from the King. And if he that kéepeth the rome of another by licence of the Treaſorer, doth any thing that he ought not to doe, he ſhal be puniſhed according to the treſpaſſe, if hée haue whereof, and if hée haue not, hée that put him in, ſhal be charged for his treſpaſſe, and if hée be not ſufficient, hée that put him in office ſhalbe charged, whether hée be of ſée or otherwiſe. And all they of this Court ſhall make oath, that if any of them may perceiue, that an other doth commit any offence, or other thing diſhoneſt in any office in this Court, or that he hath done before, that they ſhall certifie to the Treaſorer or Barons, or to ſome of them, and they ſhall returne it, And if néede require, they ſhall certifie it to the King. And that about the feaſt of Saint Margaret, before that the Eſchequer be cloſed, they ſhall cauſe a ſearch to bée made, whether any Sherife or Bailife, that ought to haue accompted the ſame yeare, haue not done ſo, and thereof a remembraunce ſhal be made in a Roll by it ſelfe. And if it be a Sherife, his accompt ſhall be firſt heard after Michaelmaſſe, before that any other be receiued to accompt. And if hée be a Baylife, hée ſhall be ſummoned or diſtrained to come at a certaine day for to accompt, ſo that no accompt ſhalbe ſuffered to ſlepe. And foraſmuch as Sherifes, Conſtables, and other, obtaine many times outragious allowances, by falſe teſtimony for the Kings worées, and other things done and prouided by their commaundement: It is prouided, That al Surueyors of the Kings works, ſhall be choſen by the oath of wiſe men, and ſhall be of ſuch as will and may attend beſt to the office. And that they be ſufficient to anſwere the King if néede be, and ſhall ſweare that they ſhall beare true and lawful witneſſe. And if the Treaſorer or Barons of the Eſchequer, haue any in ſuſpection of falſe allowances for works, or other things, that the truth be inquired, and he that is attainted, ſhal anſwer to the King as much as the allowance amounteth vnto, and ſhalbe impriſoned one yere and forty daies, and ſhalbe puniſhed at the kings pleaſure. And the Surueiors ſhalbe puniſhed for their conſent. And likewiſe hée that vpon his accompt, ſhall conceale and kéepe ſecret ſuch things, whereof hée ought to haue charged himſelfe, ſhalbe puniſhed in like maner as hée that ſhall make any ſuch falſe allowances. And that the Juſticers, Commiſſioners, and other, ſhal from henceforth deliuer into the Eſchequer, at the Feaſt of Saint Michael, from yeare to yeare, the Extreats of fines and amerciaments, made & tared before them, and of all things wherefore the Extreats are wont to be deliuered there. And they of the Eſchequer ſhal make the Extreats of the ſummons through al ſhires: Sauing that the Extreats in Eire of al pléas ſhalbe deliuered immediatly after the Eire made. Statute of the Eſcheq. 12 Here is declared how many waies essoines may be challenged, and in what cases essoines do not lie. The essoine lieth not because the land is taken into the kings hands. Essoine lieth not because the party is distreined by his lands. Essoine lieth not because any iudgement is giuen thereupon, if the Iurors do come. Essoin lieth not because the party was seene in the court. Essoine of Vltra mare lieth not because before time the party hath bin essoined of Malo veniendi. It lieth not because the party hath essoined himselfe to another day. It lieth not because the sherife was commanded to make the party to come. Essoine of Seruitio Regis lieth not because the party is a woman. It lieth not in a writ of dower, because it seemeth to be but a deceit & a delay of right. It lieth not for that the plaintife hath not found pledges of suit. It lieth not because the Atturney was essoined. It lieth not because the party hath an Atturney in the matter. It lieth not because the essoiner cõfesseth that he is not in the kings seruice. It lieth not because the summons is not returned, or the party not attached, for that the shirife hath returned, Non est inuentus. It lieth not because the party another time was essoined de seruitio Regis, ỹ is to wit, such a day, & now he hath not sent his warrant. It lieth not because he was resummoned in Assise of Mortdancester, or Darrein presentm. It lieth not because such one is not named in the writ. It lieth not because the shirif hath a precept to distreine the party for to come by his lands & goods. It lieth not because the bishop was commanded to cause the party to come. It lieth not for that the terme is passed. And it is to be noted, that essoines de seruitio Domini Regis, are allowed after the grand cape, petit cape, & after distreines taken vpon the lands and goods. Statute of essoines, Anno 12.Ed.2.

COncerning delaies in all manner of Writs & attachments, it is thus prouided, that if the tenant or defendant after the firſt attachment returned make default, that incontinently the great diſtreſſe ſhall be awarded, & if the Sheriſe doe not make ſufficient returne by a certaine day, he ſhal be grieuouſly amerced, and if he returne that he hath done execution in due manner, and that the Iſſues be deliuered to ſureties, then the Sheriſe ſhall bee commanded, that he at any other day returne the Iſſues before the Iuſtices. And if the party attached come in at that day to ſaue his default, he ſhall haue the Iſſues, and if he come not, the king ſhall haue them. And the kings Iuſtices ſhall cauſe them to be deliuered in the wardrobe. And the Iuſticers of the Bench at Weſtminſter ſhall deliuer them in the Eſchequer, and the Iuſticers in Eire, vnto the Shirife of the Shire (where they plead) as wel of that ſhire as of forreine ſhires, and he ſhal be charged therewith in the ſummons, by the rolles of the Iuſticers. Weſt. 1. cap. 44. Anno 3. Edw. 1.

2 Becauſe of the trouble which hath been heertofore vpon the accompts of Sherifes in the Eſchequer, becauſe that in the Eſtreats of the rols of the Chancerie, which haue bẽne yearely deliuered into the Eſchequer, the accompts there of haue bẽne mingled: the king will therefore that from henceforth ẏ eſtreats be made in maner following. Firſt ſhal be entred the fines which moſt commonly happen, as to haue writs and all other fines wherin the ſumme of money is expreſſed. And all theſe maner of fines of one county for the whole yeare ſhall bee written by themſelues in one place, and by order of priority, according as the fines ſhal be entred in the rolles. And alſo of all other Counties generally whatſoeuer ſhall happen to follow in any one cõtie. And for ẏ more redy recourſe to the rols, if that any thing in time to come ſhall be doubted of, either of the number or other letter in the eſtreat: the date of the day when the fine was made, ſhall be entred into the Eſtreat, which is deliuered into the Eſchequer. And after thoſe fines, then ſhal be entred charters, letters Patents and commiſſions, in which any farme or yearely rent is due to the king, or wherein any accompts are to be made, & theſe ſhall be written by compties ſeuerally after the readieſt manner. After theſe ſhall be written homages and fealties, whereof the relieſes are to be demaunded, and writs of Diem clauſit extremum & other things whereof the ſumme is not expreſſed, nor any yerely demaund to be made. Alſo the ſame Eſtreat, ſhall be entred the other charters of gift, by which ẏ king ought to haue ſeruice, ſo that the court may haue knowledge of the times, when the reliefs and ſeruices are to be demanded. And there ſhal be entred in the ſame eſtreat, the names of al thoſe which that yeare ſhall be aſſigned to heare & inquire of, or to do any thing, where by fine or amerciament, or other profit appertaining to the king, might percaſe or ought to ariſe, ſo that thereby commandement may be ſent to ſend vp the eſtreats of the ſame. And in the end of the eſtreat the reuiſeiſins and ſurcharging of paſtures as before hath bẽne: becauſe that Iuſtices, Inquirors and others which are aſſigned to diuers buſines to heare and determine, ought yearely to deliuer into the Eſchequer their eſtreats of fines and amerciaments made and tared before them, and of all other things happening by means of thoſe buſineſſes, which to the king doth appertain, ſo that he may of the ſame be duely anſwered. And oftentimes it happeneth that diuers of thoſe eſtreates be kept back ſo long before they be deliuered into the eſchequer, that the king hath by means thereof great loſſe & damage. And in time of his father (See Eſchequer 1.) it was ordeined amongſt other that Iuſtices & Inquirors, whatſoeuer they were, and all others which ought to deliuer eſtreats into the Eſchequer, ſhould cauſe them to be deliuered frõ yere to yere at the feaſt of S. Michael. And Iuſtices of Eire ſhold deliuer their eſtreats of their Eire, ſo ſone as they were finiſhed. This ordinance ſhal from henceforth be kept, and by writ expreſſly commanded to the Iuſtices of both Benches, and the Warden of the Foreſt on this ſide of Trent & beyond, that euery of them ſhal frõ henceforth do of thoſe things as ſhall appertaine to their office. And the Steward of the kings houſe for the time being be commanded and charged by the king to deliuer yearely to the Treaſorer of the Eſchequer, which is or ſhall be for the time being, his eſtreates perfectly made of the fines, amerciaments, iſſues, forfeiturs, and all maner of other profits ariſing to the vſe of the king, by reaſon of the pleas or quarels holden & had before the ſaid Steward & Marſhall of the ſaide houſhold, & this ſhall be done twice in the yere, that that is ſay, at Eaſter & Michaelmas. Item charge & commandement begiuen to the clerk of the market and of meaſures, that he deliuer his eſtreats for ſo much as appertaineth to his office in the forme aboueſaid. And the Warden of the Anlnage ſhal deliuer yerely to the Treaſorer of the Eſchequer, the eſtreates of his office, wherein ſhall be contained al the defaults which he hath found of cloths throughout the Realme, and alſo where & when, & to whom the clothes did appertain, which he found contrary to the aſſiſe, and the price, and to whome he hath deliuered them, where and when, & by what warrant. Alſo the butler for the K. for the time being be charged, that al the wines which hee ſhal prouide for the kings vſe, either by himſelfe or by his Atturneys, in what place ſoeuer it ſhal happen to be, that he ſhall make the ſame prouiſion by the view of the honeſteſt men in the towne where the ſame purueyance ſhal happen to be, ſo that alwaies the ſame purueyance may be witneſſed by the voice of two of the beſt of the ſame place. And if it happen ẏ the ſame be in a port where are gatherers of the K. cuſtom, then the ſame ſhal be teſtified by them. And no cuſtomer frõ henceforth ſhal be deputed to the butler, ſo long as he ſhal be attendant vpon the Cuſtom. And the butler which for the time ſhal be, either by himſelfe, or by his deputy, ſhall put into a rol al his buyings in this maner (ẏ is to ſay) how many tuns, of whõ he bought thẽ, at what time, & by whoſe view, & he ſhall inroll the wines of priſage, in like maner how many Tunnes, the Teſtimony of the perſons

THe King our Soueraigne Lord remembreth, how by vnlawfull maintenances, giuing of liueries, signes and tokens, and retainders by Indentures, promises, oathes, writings, or otherwise, imbraceries of his subiects, vntrue demeaning of Shiriffes in making panels, & other vntrue returnes, by taking of money by Iuries, by great riots, and vnlawfull assemblies, the policie and good rule of this Realme is almost subdued, and for the non punishing of these inconueniences, and by occasion of the premisses, nothing or little may be found by inquirie, whereby the Lawes of the Land in execution may take little effect, to the increase of Murders, Robberies, Periuries, and Unsureties of all men liuing, and losses of their lands and goodes, to the great displeasure of Almightie God. Therefore it is ordained for the reformation of the premisses, by authority of the said Parliament, that the Chauncellor and Treasorer of England, for the time being, and Keeper of the Kings priuie Seale, or two of them, calling to them a Bishoppe and a temporall Lord of the Kings most honourable Councell, and the two chiefe Iustices of the K. Bench and common Place, for the time being, or other two Iustices in their absence, vpon bil or information put to the said Chancellor for the King, or any other, against any person for any misbehauing afore rehearsed, haue authoritie to call before them by Writ, or by priuie Seale, the said misdoers, and them and others by their discretions, by whom the trueth may be knowne to examine, and such as they finde therein defectiue, to punish them after their demerites, after the forme and effect of Statutes thereof made, in like manner and forme as they should and ought to be punished if they were thereof conuict, after the due order of the Lawe. Anno 3. H. 7. capit. 1. See this next Act.

2 The Chauncellor, Treasorer of England, and the President of the Kings most honourable Councell, attending vpon his most honourable person, for the time being, and Keeper of the kings Priuie Seale, or two of them, calling vnto them one Bishop and one temporall Lord of the Kings most honourable Councell, and the two chiefe Iustices of the Kings Bench and the common Place, for the time being, or other two of the Kings Iustices in their absence, vpon any bill or information hereafter to be put in, the Chancellor of England, Treasorer, President of the Kings said most honourable Councell, or Keeper of the Kings priuie Seale, for the time being, for anie misbehauing before rehearsed, (S. in Anno 3. H. 7. cap. 1. before 1.) from henceforth shall haue full power and authoritie to call before them by Writ of Priuie Seals, such misdoers, and them and other by their discretion, by whom the trueth may bee knowne to examine. And such as they shall finde defectiue, to punish them after their demerites, after the forme and effect of the said former statute, and of all other Statutes hereof tofore made, and not repealed and expired, in like maner and forme, as they should and ought to be punished, if they were thereof conuicted after the due order of the L. Lawes. Anno 21. H. 8. cap. 20.

And for the better proceeding therein, they shall diuide and seuer themselues limiting and assigning alwayes the number of two of them at the least, or more, into the Hundreds, Wapentakes, Rapes, Commotes, or number of Townes and Villages by their discretions. Fesants and Partridges.

FOrasmuch as diuers persons vse by Nets and other Engines to take Fesants and Partridges vpon the lands and tenements of diuers owners and possessors of the same, without their licence, by the which they lose not onely their disport, that they, their friends and seruants should haue about hawking and taking of the same, but also the profit that should grow to their household, to the great hurt of all Lords and Gentlemen, and other hauing any great liuelode within this Realme: Wherefore it is &c. That it shall not be lawfull to any person, of what condition he be, to take or cause to be taken any Fesants or Partridges by Net, Snares, or other Engines, out of his owne Warren, vpon the freehold of any other person, without the assent, agreement, and speciall licence of the owner or possessioner of the same, vpon paine of forfeiture of tenne pounds: The one halfe thereof to the partie that will sue for the same by Action of Debt, or by Bill, or otherwise, and the other halfe thereof to the owner or possessor of the sayd ground, vpon the which the said Fesants and Partridges be so taken. Also it is ordained by the said authoritie, That no manner of person, of what condition or degree he be, take or cause to be taken (be it vpon his owne ground, or any other mans) the egges of any Faulkon, Gothawkes, Laners, or Swannes, out of the neast, vpon paine of imprisonment of a yeare and a day, and fine at the Kings will: The one halfe thereof to the King, and the other halfe to the owner of the ground where the egges were so taken, and that the Iustices of the Peace haue authoritie by this present Act to heare and determine such matter, as well by inquisition, as information and prowes. Also it is ordained

And that all such persons that bring any Nielle Hawke or Hawkes from any of the parts beyond the Seas, being a certificate vnder the Customers Seale of the Port where he first landed with the said Hawke or Hawkes; or if he come out of Scotland then vnder the Seale of the Warden or Lieutenant of that March that he commeth through, testifying that the same Hawke or Hawkes be of the parts beyond the Sea, or of Scotland, vpon the same paine. And that person that bringeth any such Hawke or Hawkes to the King, shall haue a reasonable reward of the King, or else the same Hawke or Hawkes for their labour. Also it is ordained by the same authoritie, That no man take any Ayer, Faulcon, Gosshawke, Tassell, or Laner, or Lanerets in their Warren or Woods, or in other place, nor pursuely driue them out of their coverts, accustomed to breed in, to cause them to goe to other coverts to breed, nor slay them for any hurt by the same, but suffer them to passe at their liberties, vpon paine of x. l. The one halfe to the partie that will sue for the same, by Action of Debt, by examination before the Justices of the Peace, information, or otherwise, and the other halfe to the King. Prouided alway, that the moitie of the forfeiture aboue said, given to the owner of the ground, for taking of Swannes egges, be vnto the owner of the said Swannes, and not to the owner of the ground. Anno 11. H. 7. cap. 17.

Where the game of Fesants and Partridges is within these few yeares in manner vtterly decayed, by meanes of such as take them with Nets and other Engines, and of such as do vse hawking in the beginning of Haruest, before the young Fesants and Partridges be of any bignesse, to the great spoile of corne and graine then growing in the fields: For reformation whereof be it ec. That no manner of person or persons, of what estate, degree, or condition soeuer, shall at any time or times, from and after the first day of April next ensuing, take, kill, or destroy any Fesants or Partridges by any manner of Nets, Snares, Gynnes, Engins, Nowfling, Lowfling, or other deuise whatsoeuer in the night time, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery Fesant so taken, killed or destroyed, contrarie to the true meaning of this Act, the summe of x. s. and euery Partridge so taken, killed or destroyed, the summe of x. s. And further, ouer & besides such forfeiture or imprisonment, to put in bond, with good sureties, for ỳ space of two yeares, that he shall not take, kill or destroy any Partridges or Fesants, contrarie to the true meaning of this Act: the same bond to be taken by some Justice of the Peace, of the Countie where the said offence shall be committed: The one halfe of all which said seuerall forfeitures to be to the chiefe Lord or Lords of the Liberties, Lordships, or Mannors, vpon and in which the same shall be so taken, killed or destroyed, & the other moitie to such person or persons as will sue for the same in any of her Maiesties Courts of Record, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in which suit no Essoine, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed. Prouided alwaies, that if such person to whom the one halfe of the said forfeiture is appointed for the taking, killing or destroying of Partridges and Fesants, contrarie to the tenor and true meaning of this Act, shall dispence with, licence or procure any taking, killing or destroying of any Partridges or Fesants, contrarie to the forme of this Act, that then all such forfeitures and penalties as such person or persons should haue by vertue of this Act, shall be to the poore of the Parish, where such taking, killing or destroying shall be committed, and that to be leuied or recouered in manner and forme aforesaid, by any one of the Churchwardens of the Parish where the offence shall be committed. And be it likewise further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no manner of person or persons, from and after the said first day of April shall hawke, or with his spaniels hunt in any ground where corne or other graine shall then growe (except it be in his owne ground) at such time as any eared or codded corne or graine shall be standing and growing vpon the same, nor before such time, as such corne and graine shall be shocked, corked, hyled or copped, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery time that he shall so hawke or hunt, as aforesaid (without the consent of the owner of the same, or graine) to such person or persons as shall be owner of the said eared or codded corne or graine, xl. s. and the same to be leuied or recouered in manner and forme aforesaid. And further, that euery Justice of the Peace within euery Countie of this Realme, shall within the limits of his Commission haue power & authority, by vertue hereof, to examine all offendors in the premisses within the Countie where he is or shalbe Justice, if so be that the said offence or offences shall not before be heard or determined by the said Justices of Assise in their circuits, or by ỳ Stewards of Leets, Liberties or Lawdayes, within the said seuerall iurisdictions, & also to take bond, with good sureties, for his and their apparance that shall so offend, to appeare at the next generall Sessions of the Peace, to be holden within the same Countie, where the same offence shall be committed, to answer the said offence, and to pay the penalties, or receiue the punishment mine all offences to be committed againſt this preſent Statute, and to adminiſter Oathes as aforeſaid, and performe and execute all and euery Act and thing, fit or requiſite for the due execution of this preſent Act. Prouided alwayes, That it ſhall and may be lawfull for euery perſon or perſons, which haue or ſhall haue free Warren, and to and for euery Lord of a Manor, and to euery Freeholder, which is or ſhall be ſeiſed in his owne right, or in the right of his Wife, of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, to the cleare yearely value of 10. l. or more by the yeare, ouer & aboue all charges and repriſes of ſome eſtate of Inheritance, or of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in his owne right, or in the right of his Wife, for terme of life or liues, of the yearely value of 30. l. ouer and aboue all charges and repriſes, or be, or which ſhall be worth in goods and chattels 200. l. by him or themſelues, or by his or their meniall ſeruants (ſufficiently authorized from his or their maſter for that purpoſe) to take Feſants and Partridges in the day time onely with Nets, in and vpon his & their owne, or his & their Maſters free Warren, Manor and Freehold, or on any part of them, betwixt the Feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell, and the Feaſt of the birth of our Lord God yearely: any thing in this Law to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And be it enacted &c. That it ſhall and may be lawfull to and for euery perſon and perſons, keeping any Hawke or Hawkes, which at the generall Quarter Seſſions of the Countie (where he and they ſhall dwell) ſhall be licenced to ſhoot hayle-ſhot in Handgunnes or Birding Piece, at Crow, Chough, Pye, Rooke, Ringdoue, Jay, or ſmaller Birds, for Hawkes meat onely, to ſhoot and kill Hawkes meat, according to the ſaid Licence only, ſo that ſuch partie ſo to be licenced, doe at the ſame Quarter Seſſions, wherein he ſhall be licenced, become bound to the Kings Maieſtie by Recogniſance in 20. l. not to ſhoot at any the Fowle, or Game, at which, ſhooting is prohibited by this law: And ſo that he or they ſhall not ſhoot in any Handgunne or other Gunne, within 600 paces of any Pennerie, nor within 100 paces of any Pigeon-houſe, nor in any Parke, Forreſt, or Chaſe, whereof the partie ſo licenced, or his Maſter, is or ſhall not be the Owner, Keeper, or Gouernour, for which Licence and Recogniſance the Clerke of the Peace is to take onely twelue pence, and no more. This Law to continue to the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament. Anno 1. Iac. cap. 27.

4 Whereas in the firſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament there was a good Law made, amongſt other things, for the preſeruation of the Game of Feſants and Partridges (before 3.) which hath not yelded that good ſucceſſe as was by the ſame Law hoped for and intended, through diſorderly and vnſeaſonable Hawking, whereby great quantities of Corne and Graine hath beene and is not onely vncharitably ſpoiled and deſtroyed, but great numbers of Feſants and Partridges thereby killed and ſpoyled before they be either fit to be hawked at, or to be vſed for food or vſe: For the preuenting of both which inconueniences and miſchiefes, Be it &c. That all and euery perſon and perſons whatſoeuer, which at any time after the end of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament doth, or ſhall hawke at, deſtroy, or kill any Feſant or Feſants, Partridge or Partridges, with any kind of Hawke or Hawkes, Dogge or Dogges, by colour of hawking, betweene the firſt of July, and the laſt day of Auguſt: And the ſame offence or offences being proued by the confeſſion of the partie, or by the teſtimonie of two ſufficient witneſſes vpon Oath, before two or more Juſtices of the Peace of the ſayd Countie, Citie, or Towne corporate, wherein the offence ſhall be committed, or the partie offending apprehended, ſhall be by the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace for euery ſuch offence committed to the common Gaole of the ſaid Countie, Citie or Towne corporate, where the offence ſhalbe committed, or the parties apprehended, there to remaine for one whole moneth without baile or mainprize, vnleſſe that the ſaid offendor do or ſhall forthwith, vpon the ſaid conuiction, pay or cauſe to be payed to the Churchwardens of the ſaid Pariſh, or vnto the Ouerſeers of the poore, or ſome of them, where the ſaid offence ſhall be committed, or the partie apprehended, to the vſe of the poore of the ſame Pariſh, the ſumme of fortie ſhillings for euery ſuch hawking at any Feſant or Partridge, and twentie ſhillings for euery Feſant or Partridge, which any and euery ſuch perſon and perſons ſo offending and conuicted (as aforeſaid) by himſelfe, his Hawke or Hawkes, Dogge or Dogges, ſhall take, kill or deſtroy, contrarie to the true purport, intent, and meaning of this preſent Statute. Prouided alwayes, and be it &c. That if any perſon or perſons ſhall be at any time hereafter conuicted and puniſhed by vertue of this Law, That then the partie ſo puniſhed ſhall not for the ſame offence be eſſſones called in queſtion, and puniſhed by vertue of any other Law touching or concerning the like offences. Prouided alſo, that no offendors ſhall bee impeached or puniſhed by vertue of this Act, vnleſſe he or they be accuſed as delinquent before the ſaid Juſtices of Peace within ſix moneths next after the ſayd offence or offences committed and done. And whereas by a Proviſo in the ſaid Statute contained, it is prouided, That it ſhall and may be lawfull to and for euery perſon and perſons which haue or ſhall haue free Warren, and to and for euery Lord of a Manor, and to euery Freeholder, which is or ſhall be ſeiſed in his owne right, or in the right of his wife, of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, to the cleere yearely value of tenne pounds or more by the yere, ouer and aboue all charges and repriſes, of ſome eſtate of Inheritance, or of lands, tenements, or hereditaments in his owne right, or in the right of his wife, for terme of life or liues, of the yearely value of thirtie pounds, ouer and aboue all charges and repriſes, or be or which ſhall be worth in goods or chattels two hundred pounds, by him or themſelues, or by his or their meniall ſeruants (ſufficiently authoriſed from his or their Maſter for that purpoſe) to take Feſants and Partridges

(in the day time onely) with Nets, in and vpon his and their owne, or his and their Mallers free Warren, Manor and Freehold, or on any part of them, betwixt the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, and the Feaſt of the Birth of our Lord God yearely, any thing in the ſaid Law to the contrarie notwithſtanding: By colour of which libertie ſo giuen by the ſaid Prouiſo, it is found by experience, that the ſaid Games of Feſants and Partridges haue beene and ſtill are likely to bee much ſpoyled and deſtroyed by many meane Tenants and Freeholders, againſt the will of the Lords or Owners of Inheritance of the ſayd lands and tenements, Be it &c. That the ſayd Prouiſo, and euery clauſe, article and thing therein contained, ſhall be from the end of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament vtterly repealed, fruſtrate, and made void, any thing in the ſaid Prouiſo contained to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And that it ſhall and may be lawfull for euery perſon or perſons, which haue or ſhall haue free Warren, and to and for euery Lord of a Manor, and to and for euery Freeholder, which is, or ſhall be ſeiſed in his owne right, or in the right of his wife, of lands, tenements and hereditaments, to the cleare yearely value of fortie pounds or more by the yeare, ouer and aboue all charges and reprizes, of ſome eſtate of Inheritance, or of landes, tenements and hereditaments, in his owne right, or in the right of his wife, for terme of life or liues, of the yearely value of fourefcore pounds ouer and aboue all charges and reprizes, or which ſhall be worth in goods or chattels foure hundred pounds, by him or themſelues, or by his or their meniall and houſehold ſeruants (ſufficiently authorized from his or their Maſter for that purpoſe) to take Feſants and Partridges (in the day time onely) in and vpon his and their owne, or his and their Mallets free Warren, Manor, and Freehold, as aforeſaid, or on any part of them, betwixt the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, and the Birth of our Lord God yearely, any thing in the ſaid Law before mentioned to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And whereas the ſayd Games of Feſants and Partridges are exceſſiuely ſpoyled and deſtroyed by baſe perſons, of bad and meane condition, making a trade and a liuing of the ſpoyling and deſtroying of the ſayd Games, who are not of ſufficiencie to pay any penaltie, in any former Statute mentioned, nor to anſwere the coſts and charges of any that ſhould informe and proſecute againſt them, in any of his Maieſties Courts: By reaſon whereof, and for that the ſayd offendors are hardly diſcouered, and felonie or neuer found offending, in the preſence of diuers witneſſes, ſo that it is very hard to conuict them by the teſtimonie of more witneſſes then one, by reaſon that they ſpoyle and deſtroy the ſayde Games ſecretly, and for the moſt part in the night time, and doe carrie ſuch Feſants and Partridges, as they ſo deſtroy likewiſe by night, to Cities and Market Townes to be ſold, Be it &c. That all and euery perſon and perſons, which from and after the firſt day of September next, ſhall take, kill, or deſtroy any Feſant or Partridge, with Setting Dogges and Nets, or otherwiſe, with any manner of Nets, Snares, or Engines, and the ſame offence or offences being proued by the confeſſion of the partie, or by the teſtimonie of one ſufficient witneſſe, vpon Oath, before two or more Juſtices of the Peace of the ſame Countie, Citie, or Towne corporate, wherein the offence ſhall bee committed, or the partie offending apprehended, ſhall be by the ſayd Juſtices of Peace, for euery ſuch offence committed to the common Gaole of the ſayd Countie, Citie, or Towne corporate, where the offence ſhall be committed, or the partie apprehended, there to remaine for three moneths, without bayle or mainprize, vnleſſe that the ſayd offendor ſhall forthwith pay or cauſe to be payed to the Churchwardens or Ouerſeers of the poore of the ſayde Parith, where the ſayd offence ſhall be committed, the ſumme of twentie ſhillings, for euerie Feſant or Partridge, which any and euery ſuch perſon or perſons ſo offending, ſhall take, kill, or deſtroy, as aforeſaid, contrarie to the purport and true meaning of this Statute, and further to become bound by Recogniſance in the ſumme of twentie pounds, to his Maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, with condition, that he the ſayd partie ſo offending ſhall not at any time hereafter take, kill, or deſtroy any Feſant or Partridge: which ſayd Recogniſance ſhall be taken by any one, or more Juſtices of Peace of the ſayd Countie, Citie, or Towne corporate, where the ſayd offence ſhall be committed, as aforeſaid, and ſhall be returned to the then next Quarter Seſſions, and there to remaine of Record, as other Recogniſances taken for the Peace. And be it further enacted, That euerie Conſtable and Headborough in euerie Countie, Citie, Towne corporate, and other place where they ſhall be ſworne Officers, ſhall and may by vertue of this preſent Act, (bringing with them to that purpoſe a lawfull Warrant, vnder the hands of two Juſtices of Peace of the Countie, Citie, Liberties, or Towne corporate) haue full power and authoritie to enter into, and ſearch the houſe or houſes of any perſon or perſons (other then ſuch as by this preſent Act are allowed to take Feſants and Partridges with Nets, as aforeſaid) being ſuſpected to haue any Setting Dogges or Nets, for the taking of Feſants and Partridges, and whereſoeuer they ſhall finde any ſuch Setting Dogge or Nets, the ſame to take, carrie away, and detaine, kill, deſtroy, and cut in pieces, as things prohibited by this Act, and forfeited to ſuch of the ſaid Officers, as ſhall finde out and take the ſame, as aforeſaid. This Law to continue vnto the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, and no longer. Anno 7. Iac. cap. 11.

Fighting and quarelling.

FOraſmuch as of late, many barbarous behauiours haue beene committed by irreligious perſons, sons, by brawling and fraying openly in the churches and churchyards: Be it &c. That if any person whatsoeuer, shall at any time after the first day of May next cumming, by words onely, quarrell, chide or brawle in any church or churchyard, that then it shalbe lawfull to the Ordinary of the place, where the same offence shall be done & proued by y. lawful witnesses, to suspend euery person so offending, that is to say: if he be a Layman, ab ingressu Ecclesiæ: and if he be a Clerke, from the administration of his office, for so long time as the Ordinary shall by his discretion thinke meete and conuenient according to the fault. And further it is &c. That if any person or persons, after the said first day of May shall smite or lay any violent hands vpon any other, either in any Church or Churchyard, that then ipso facto, euery person so offending shall be deemed excommunicate, & be excluded from the fellowship and company of Christs congregation. Fines.

FOrasmuch as fines leuyed in the Court, ought, and doe make an end of all suites, and thereof are called fines, chiefly when and next vnto trialles by battel, or the great assise in their cases, they hold the most and finall place for euer. And now by a certaine time passed, aswell in the time of K. Henry of famous memorie our father, as in our time, the parties to such fines and their heires, contrary to the lawes of our realme of ancient time vsed, were admitted to annull & defeat such fine, alledging, that before the fine leuied, & at the leuying therof, & since the demaundants or plaintifes, or their auncestors were alway seised of the lands cõtained in the fine, or of some parcell thereof, & so fines lawfully leuied, were many times vniustly defeated and annulled by iurors of the country, falsly and malitiously procured: We therefore intending to prouide a remedy in the premisses, in our Parliament at Westm. haue ordained, that such exceptions, answers or inquisitions of the country, shall from hencefoorth in no wise be admitted, contrary to such recognitios or fines. And further, we will that this statute shal extend as well vnto fines heretofore leuied, as to them that shalbe leuied hereafter. And let the Justices se that such notes and fines as hereafter shal be leuied in our Court, be read openly & solemnly, and that in the meane time all plees shall cease, and this must be y. certain daies in the week, according to the discretion of the Justices. 2 The K. vnto the Justices of his Bench greeting: whereas of late we haue ordained, that al such fines as are to be leuied in our court, be lawfully leuied, which we will in no wise to be broken, or to be annulled of their power, we haue sent to you our minde in writing, firmely to be obserued, that is to wit, that aswel the parties demandant or plaintife, as the Tenants or Defendants, that will yelde or knowledge right of lands or tenements vnto other in plees of warranty of Charter, Couenant & other whereupon fines are to be leuied afore you, before such fines do passe, the parties shall appeare personally, so that their age, ideocy, or any other default being in them, may be iudged or discerned by you. Prouided allway, that if any person aged or decrepit, or impotent by casualty, be so oppressed and holden, that by no meane he is able to come before you in our court, then in such case we wil, that y. or 3. of you, by assent of the residue of the Bench, shall visit the party so diseased, & shall receiue his cognisance vpon the plee & forme of the plee that he hath in our court, whereupon the same fine ought to be leuied. And if there goe but one, he shall take with him an abbot, a prior, or a knight, a man of good fame and credence, and shal certifie you thereof by Record, so that all things incident to the same fine being examined by him or them, the same fines according to our forme & ordinance, may be lawfully leuied: yet we wil not that any of our Barons of the Eschecq. or our Justices, shall admit any Atturnies but only in plees and matters that passe afore them in the Benches, and in places where they be assigned by vs. And the same power of admitting Atturnies, we prohibite & deny to the clerkes & seruants of the said Barons & Justices: And do ordaine, that if any Atturnies be admitted hereafter by any of the persons aforesaid, their admission shalbe of none effect: Reserued alway to the Chancellor for the time being, his authority in admitting Atturnies, according to whose discretion they shal be admitted, and to those our Justices as heretofore hath bẽ obserued in the admission of Atturnies: we wil also that this our ordinance shall take effect and beginne at the vtas of the Trinity ensuing. tenances, conteined in the writ, to be the right of our soueraigne lord the king, which he hath of their gift: To haue and to hold to him and to his heyres, of the said W. and A. and to the heyres of the sayde A. as in demeanes, rents, seignioryes, plees, purchases, wardes, mariages, releefes, escheats, mills, aduowsons of churches, and all other franchises and free customs to the said manour belonging, paying yearely to R. and his heyres, as cheefe lords of the fee, the seruices and customes due for all seruices. And it is to be noted, That the order of the law will not suffer a finall accord to be leuied in the Kings Court, without a writ originall, and that must be at the least before foure Justices in the bench, or in eyre, and not otherwise, and in presence of the parties named in the writ, which must be of full age, of good memory, and out of prison. And if a woman couert be one of the parties, then shee must be first examined, by foure of the sayd Justices, and if shee doe not assent thereto, the fine shall not be leuyed. And the cause wherefore such solemnity ought to be done in a fine, is because a fine is so high a barre, of so great force, & of so strong nature in himselfe, that it concludeth not onely such as be parties and privies thereto, and their heyres, but all other people of the world, being of full age, out of prison, of good memory, & within the 4. seas, the day of the fine leuied, if they make not their claim of their action within a yeere and a day by the country. And where also at the Parliament, begun at Westminster the xxviij. day of Aprill, in the 31. yeare of our said soueraigne Lord the Kings most gracious raigne: and afterward continued by diuers and sundry prorogations, vntill the dissolution thereof, there was by authority of the said Parliament, erected and established a certaine court, called the Court of the first fruits and Tenth: And it was further enacted by the authority of the said Parliament, that the said first fruits and Tenths, and all the reuenues and profits thereof, which then were, or hereafter from henceforth should grow or be, by any manner of meanes, should be from henceforth in the order, suruey, & gouernance of the said Court of the first fruits and Tenth, and Ministers of the same, as by the same act among diuers other things therein conteined plainly appeareth. And that no Incumbent making ſuch default of payment, ſhall be therefore made vnable to take or enioy any other benefice or promotion ſpirituall, or incur any penalty, forfeiture, or loſſe, to be paide by them, their executors, or aſſignes, for the ſame default, other then in this preſent Act is heretofore expreſſed: any thing in the ſaid former act, or any other ſtatutes or acts conteined to ẏ contrary notwithſtanding. 3 The Fishers bee free to sell their Herring to all that come to the Faire of great Yarmouth without any disturbance of their Hostelers, or any other. presence, & in the presence of other Marchants openly shall sel their marchandizes. And that euerie man claime his part for the taking, after the rate of the same marchandizes so sold. And the said sale shalbe made from the Sunne rising, till the Sunne going downe, and not before nor after, vpon forfeiture of the same marchandizes. And that the said fishers be free to buy their victuailes, and that that them needeth, where shall please them. And that no Hostlers, nor other, buy any fish to hang in their houses, by couin, nor in other manner, at a higher price the last, then forty shillings, but lesse in as much as he may, according as he may agree with the seller. And that none Hostelers, nor none of their yeomen, nor none other what soeuer they be, comming to the said faire, shal goe by land, nor by sea, to forestall Herring priuily, nor apertly, but the herring shall come freely vnsold vnto the hauen. Nor that none make buying of fresh herring in the hauen of Yarmouth, betwixt the feasts of Saint Michaell and Saint Martin, vpon paine of imprisonment at the Kings will, and to forfeit all the herring so bought. And that no vessell called Picar of London, nor of none other place, shall enter in the said hauen to abate the faire, in damage of the people, vpon the paine of forfeiture of their vessell, and all their chattells found within. And that all the Hostelers be sworne before the wardens of the said faire, and inioyned vpon a great forfeiture to the King, to receiue their hostes well and conuenably, and to aide and ease them reasonably, taking of euery laste that shal be sold to other Marchants, then to the said Hostelers xl. d. And that of herring sold to the same Hostelers to take in their houses, the same Hostelers shall take nothing, and that because of the profits, which they shall haue of victuals sold to their said hostes, and of their aduantage that they haue more then other, of carriage of Herring so by them bought and sold in their houses. And that the Hostelers because of this ordinaunce, do not refuse their hostes, but receiue them and intreat them in good and friendly maner, as they haue done before this time. And that they for the aduantage of forty pence the laste, take vpon them for the payment of all the herring that shall be sold by their assent to any persons. And the hundred of herring, shall be accounted by fire score, and the laste of ten thousand. And that the Marchants of Yarmouth, of London, or elsewhere, sell the thousand of Herring to the people, after the rate of the price of the laste. And that the people of Yarmouth sell the laste of red herring bought for forty shillings fresh within forty dayes, for halfe a marke of gaine, and not aboue. And that the people of London at such faire, shall bring the laste from Yarmouth to London for one marke of gaine, and not aboue. And also two lastes of shotten herring fresh shall be solde for the price of the rate of the buying of a laste of full Herring. And so of more and lesse after the same rate, and of shotten herring red, the two lastes shall be sold dearer of a marke then the laste of herrings full red. And that because the cariage of a laste of shotten herring, drawleth to as much as the laste of full herrin, & so of more and lesse, according to the same rate. And that the shippes called the Pikers, shall freely buy fresh herring and al other Marchandizes of fishes in Winkley, and elsewhere vpon the coasts of the sea, without impeachment or disturbance of the Hostelers of Yarmouth, or of any other. So allwayes that no more herring be discharged in the road of Winkley of the fishers shippes, but as much as may reasonably suffice, to the charge of the Pikers, that thither commeth for the same cause. And that the fishers be compelled to bring al the remnāt of their herring to the said faire to sell there: so that none sel Herring in no place aboue the Hauen of Yarmouth liij. miles, except in the three townes of Yarmouth: that is to say, Gilton, Wellton and Southton, vnles it be herring of their own fishing. And our soueraigne lord the King will, that the Barons of the fiue Ports shal do to be kept and gouerned the said faire according to the composition late made betweene them and the people of the Towne of Yarmouth, confirmed by the kings grandfather. And that the same Barons and Bailifs of great Yarmouth doe to be kept this present ordinance in all points, & to be cried in euery Sunday, betweene Saint Michael and Saint Martin, vpon paine to lose their franchise, and to be punished at the Kings will. And that the people of Yarmouth suffer the said Barons of the fiue Ports, to gouerne and rule the said faire, after the purport of the said composition, and due execution to be made of this ordinaunce, vpon the paine last aforesaid. And these ordinaunces in the right of buying and selling of herring shalbe holden in all the Townes of England, where herring is taken and searched, vpon the paines aforesaid. WE haue granted to God, and by this our preſent Charter haue confirmed for vs and our heires for euermore, that the Church of England ſhall be free, and ſhall haue all her holy rights and liberties inuiolable. Magna charta cap. 1.

2 The Citie of London ſhall haue all the old liberties and cuſtomes which it hath beene vſed to haue. Moreouer, we will and grant, that all other Cities, Boroughes, Townes, and the Barons of the fiue Ports, and all other Ports, haue all their liberties and free cuſtomes. Magna charta cap. 9.

3 Reſeruing to all Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, Priors, Templers, Hoſpitlers, Earles, Barons, and all perſons, as well Spirituall as Temporall, all their liberties and free cuſtomes, which they haue had in time paſt. And all theſe cuſtomes and liberties aforeſaid, which wee haue granted to be holden within this our Realme, as much as appertaineth to vs, and to our heires, we ſhall obſerue. And all men of this our Realme, as well Spirituall as Temporall (as much as in them is) ſhall likewiſe obſerue the ſame againſt all perſons. And we haue graunted vnto them on the other part, that neither we, nor our heires, ſhall procure, or doe any thing, whereby the Liberties in this Charter ſhall be infringed or broken. And if any thing be procured by any perſon, contrarie to the premiſſes, it ſhall be holden of no force ne effect. Magna charta cap. 37.

4 For as much as writs of Quo warranto, and iudgement giuen vpō plées of the ſame were greatly delayed, becauſe that Juſtices in giuing iudgement were not certified of the kings pleaſure therin: Our Soueraigne Lord the King, at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter after the feaſt of Eaſter, the eighteenth yeare of his raigne, of his ſpeciall grace, and for the ſingular affection that he beareth vnto his Prelates, Earles, and Barons, and other of this Realme, hath granted, That all vnder his alleageance, as well Spirituall as other, which can proue & verifie by Inqueſt in the countrey, or otherwiſe, that they and their auncеſtors and predeceſſors, haue vſed any manner Liberties, whereof they were impleaded by the ſaid writs before the time of King Richard our couſen, or in our time, and haue continued hitherto (ſo that they haue not miſuſed ſuch Liberties) that the parties ſhall bee adiourned further vnto a certaine day reaſonable before the ſame Juſtices, within the which they may goe to our Soueraigne Lord the King, with the Record of the Juſtices ſigned with his Seale, and alſo returne. And the King by his letters Patents ſhall confirme their eſtate. And they that cannot proue the ſeiſin of their auncеſtors, in ſuch manner as is before declared, ſhall be ordered and adiudged after the law and cuſtome of the Realme, and ſuch as haue the Kings Charters, ſhall be iudged according to their Charters. Moreouer, the King of his ſpeciall grace hath granted, That all iudgements that are to be giuen in plées of Quo warranto, by his Juſtices at Weſtminſter after the foreſaid Eaſter, for the King himſelfe, if the parties grieued will come againe before the King, he of his grace ſhall giue them ſuch remedie as before is mentioned. Alſo our Soueraigne Lord hath granted, for ſparing of coſts and expences of his people, That plées of Quo warranto from henceforth ſhall be pleaded and determined in the circuit of the Juſtices. And that all plées now depending ſhall be adiourned into the Shires, vntill the comming of the Juſtices into thoſe parts. Anno 18. Edw. 1.

Teſte &c. In like manner, and in the ſame forme writs ſhall bee directed to Sherifes and other Bailifes for euerie demaundant, and the forme ſhall bee chaunged, after the diuerſitie of the Libertie which any man claimeth to haue, in this wiſe: Rex Vicecomit ſalutem: Præcipimus tibi, quòd per totam balliuam tuam, viz. tam in Ciuitatibus, quam in Burgis, & alijs villis mercatorijs, & alibi publicè proclamari facias, quod omnes illi qui aliquas libertates per Chartas progenitorum noſtrorum Regum Angliæ, vel alio modo habere clamant, ſint coram Iuſticiarijs noſtris ad primam Aſſiſam, ad oſtendendum cuiuſmodi libertates habere clamant, & quo warranto. Et tu ipſe ſis ibidem perſonaliter cum Balliuis & miniſtris, ad certificandum ipſos Iuſticiarios ſuper his & alijs negotijs illud tangentibus. This clauſe of Liberties that beginneth in this wiſe, Præcipimus tibi, quod publicè proclamari facias, &c. is put in the Writ of common ſummons of the Iuſtices in Eire, and ſhall haue a premonition or warning before, by the ſpace of fortie dayes, as the common ſummons hath, ſo that if any partie that claimeth to haue Libertie, bee afore the King, it ſhall not be in default before any Iuſtices in their circuites: for the King of his ſpeciall grace hath graunted, that he will ſaue the partie harmeleſſe, as concerning the ordinance. And if the ſame partie bee impleaded vpon ſuch manner of Liberties, before one or two of the foreſayd Iuſtices, the ſame Iuſtices before whom the partie is impleaded, ſhall ſaue him harmeleſſe before the other Iuſtices. And if the foreſaid partie be afore the King, ſo that he cannot be the ſame day afore the ſayd Iuſtices in their circuites, the King ſhall ſaue that partie harmeleſſe before the foreſayd Iuſtices in their circuites for the day, whereas he was before the King. And if hee doe not come in the ſame day, then thoſe Liberties ſhall bee taken into the Kings hands, in name of diſtreſſe, by the Sherife of the place, ſo that they ſhall not vſe them vntill they come to anſwer before the Iuſtices. And when they doe come in by diſtreſſe, their Liberties ſhall bee replevied (if they demaund them) in the which Repleuin they ſhall anſwer immediately after the forme of the Writ aforeſaid. And if percaſe they will challenge and ſay, that they are not bounden to anſwer in the originall Writ, then if it may appeare by any meane, that they haue vſurped any Liberties vpon the King, or his predeceſſors, of their own head or preſumption, they ſhall bee commaunded to aunſwer incontinent without Writ. And moreouer, they ſhall haue ſuch iudgement as the Court of our Soueraigne Lord the King will award. And if they will ſay further, That their aunceſtors died ſeiſed thereof, they ſhall bee heard, and the truth ſhall bee inquired incontinent, and according to that, iudgement ſhall bee giuen. And if it appeare, that their aunceſtors died ſeiſed thereof, then the King ſhall haue a Writ out of the Chauncerie in this forme: Rex Vicecomit ſalutem: Summ per bonos ſummon talem, quod ſit coram nobis apud talem locum in proximo aduentu noſtro in Comitatu prædicto, vel coram Iuſticiarijs noſtris ad proximam Aſſiſam, cum in partes illas venerint, oſtenſurus quo warranto tenet viſum francipleg' in Manerio ſuo de N. vel ſic: quo warranto tenet Hundred' de S. in Comitatu prędict', vel quo warranto clamat habere Thelonum pro ſe & hæredibus ſuis, per totum Regnum noſtrum. Et habeas ibi hoc breue. Teſte &c. And if they come in at the ſame day, they ſhal anſwer, and if they doe not come, nor bee eſſoined before the King, and the King doe tarie longer in the ſame Shire, ſuch order ſhall be taken as is in the circuit of Iuſtices. And if the King depart from the ſame Shire, they ſhall bee adiourned vnto ſhort dayes, and ſhall haue reaſonable delayes, according to the diſcretion of the Iuſtices, as is vſed in perſonall Actions. Alſo the Iuſtices errant in their circuit, ſhall doe according to the foreſaid ordinance, and according as ſuch manner of plees ought to be ordered in the circuit. 2 Forasmuch as the ſaid pretended fraudulent eſtates (s. of the Rebelles late in the North) and conueyances, are yet kept ſecret, and not openly publiſhed, and in time to come, may be very daungerous and likely to tend to diſinherite the Queens Maieſtie and her aſſignes of their eſtate and intereſt, in ſuch Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, as her Maieſtie and her Aſſignes now haue, by reaſon of the ſaide Attainders, vnleſſe ſome prouiſion be made, that ſuch ſecret eſtates, conueiances, and aſſurances, may in due and conuenient time bee openly publiſhed and brought to light. Parliament, of, or in the said landes, tenements or hereditaments, whereof, or out of the which anie such purchase, graunt, lease, charge or profite was made. Prouided that this Act, nor any thing therein contained, shall extend in any sort to restraine or impaire the iurisdiction, power, or authority of the Court of Starre-chamber. Anno 27. Eliz. cap. 4. This Act, and euery braunch, clause and prouiso in it, was continued and made perpetuall by the Statute of 39. Eliz. cap. 18.

4 Forasmuch as it hath beene and is very much bruited and published abroad, and by sundry persons pretended, that diuers and many of the persons attainted of high treason, sithence the eight day of Februarie, in the xviij. yeare of the reigne of our Soueraigne Ladie the Quéenes Maiestie, for matter tending to the hurt, death or destruction of the Quéenes Maiestie, or to any actuall rebellion or inuasion to haue béen made within this realme, or any other the Quéenes Maiesties Dominions, or for being adherent or giuing aide and comfort to anie the Quéenes Maiesties enemies within the same Realme, or elsewhere, haue made diuers secret and fraudulent estates and conueyances of their lands, tenements, and hereditaments, to the intent thereby to defraud the Quéenes Maiestie of such forfeiture of their lands, tenements, and hereditaments, as her Highnesse by reason of the seuerall Treasons, is, or shall be intituled to haue. And forasmuch as the said pretended fraudulent estates and conueiances are yet kept secret and not openly published, and in time to come may be very dangerous, and likely to tend to disinherit the Quéens Maiestie, her heires, successours, and assignes, of their estate and interest, in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, as her Maiestie, her heyres, successors, or assignes, now haue or ought to haue, by reason of the said attainders, vnlesse some prouision be made, that such secret estates, conueiances and assurances, may in due and conuenient time be openly published and brought to light: for remedie whereof: Be it &c. That euery person or persons, which hath or claimeth to haue any estate of inheritance, lease or rent, not already entered of Record, or certified in the Quéens Maiesties Court of Eschequer, of, in or to, or out of anie manors, lands, or hereditaments, by or vnder any grant, assurances or conueiances whatsoeuer, had, made or done, at anie time sithence the beginning of the Quéenes Maiesties reigne, by any the persons attainted for any the aforesaid causes, sithence the eight day of Februarie, shall within two yeares next insuing the last day of this Session of Parliament, openly shew and bring forth, or cause to be shewed and brought forth into the Quéens maiesties said court of her Eschequer, the same his or their graunt, conueiance & assurance, which he or they haue or hath, or pretendeth to haue, of, in, or to any the said manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments. And there in the Terme time in open Court shall offer and exhibite the same graunt, conueiance and assurance, or vpon his or their Oath, affirming that hée or they haue not, nor can come by the same, or that it was neuer put in writing: Then the effect thereof in writing to be entred and inrolled of Record, or else euery such graunt, conueiance and assurance shall be vtterly voide and of none effect to all intents and purposes. And be it further enacted &c. That the Lord Treasurer, Chauncellor, and Barons of the said court of Eschequer for the time being, or any of them, vpon entry such offering and exhibiting of any such graunt, conueyance or assurance, or the effect thereof, hereafter in forme aforesaid to be shewed or brought forth, shall forthwith cause the same offer to be entred of Record, and shall likewise cause the saide graunt, conueyance or assurance, or the effect thereof, as is aforesaid, in the same Court to be entred and inrolled of Record, without any fée or reward to be taken or had of the party for the doing thereof. And after such offer made and recorded, it may and shall be lawfull for euery person which hereafter shall exhibite and offer any such graunt, conueyance and assurance, or the effect thereof, as is aforesaid, into the said court of Eschequer, at his liberty and pleasure, at all times within the said two yeares, by processe to be graunted out of the said Court of Eschequer, or otherwise to produce and bring forth such testimonie, proofes and witnesses, into the said Court of Eschequer, there to be examined, as hée can, for the better proofe of his said graunt, conueiaunce or assuraunce to be made bona fide, and without any fraude or couine. And yet neuertheless, if at any time after vpon any information vpon the case, or other information to be preferred & exhibited into the said Court of Eschequer, for, and in the behalfe of our saide Soueraigne Ladie the Quéene, her heyres or successours, or vpon anie Action vpon that Case or suite to be prosecuted by any of the Patentées of the Quéenes Maiestie, her heyres or successours, or by any other the heyres or assignes of the same Patentées, it shall happen to be sufficiently tried and proued by verdict of twelue men, according to the common course of the lawes of this Realme, that any of the said estates, assuraunces and conueiaunces made by any of the said traitors and persons attainted, was made vpon any fraud or couine, to the intent thereby to defraud the Quéenes Maiestie of such forfeitures as might haue growen or commen to her Highnesse by reason of anie the said Attainders: That then euerie such estate, conueyance and assurance, so tried and sufficiently proued, as aforesaid, to be had or made, by and vpon such fraude or couine, shall be vtterly void and of none effect to all intents, constructions and purposes, vntill such time as such triall by verdict shall be lawfully vndone by Attaint or otherwise. Prouided allwayes, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That this Act, nor anie thing therein contained, shall not in any wise extend to anie bargaine and sale by Dœde indented and inrolled, nor to any other assurance heretofore inrolled in any the Quéens maiesties courts of record at Westminster, made vpon good and true cõsideration or considerations, without fraude or couine, by any of the said persons so attainted, at any time before the day of his or their said seuerall treasons cõmitted, whereof they now stand attainted:

Towne without danger of any forfeiture to make billets of two casts. And that al billets of two casts from henceforth to be made and put to sale, shall be of the Assise herein comprised or more, and shall be marked onely within fiue inches of the middest thereof; And that euery Billet of one cast from henceforth to be made and put to sale, shall be onely marked within foure inches of the ende thereof, vpon paine that euery marker and euery seller that shall make any such fuel or coales, and put the same to sale, to forfeit for euery shide of tall Wood, Billet, Fagot, or sacke of Coales, from henceforth put to sale lacking of the assize aforesaid three shillings foure pence. And that this present statute only, and no other Statute of Assize of fuell or coales, shall from henceforth stand in force ne take place. And forasmuch as by the greedy appetite and couetousnes of diuers persons, fuel, Coales and Wood, runneth many time through foure or fiue seuerall hands or more, before it commeth to the hands of them that for their necessity do burne or retaile the same: Be it further enacted, that from the first day of May next comming, no person or persons shall buy any such Wood, Coales, or fuel, but only such as will burne and consume the same, or such persons as shall sell the same againe by retaile, to such as shall burne or consume the same for their owne occupying, without fraud or couin, or wharfingers or Bargemen, vpon paine to forfeit the treble value of all such Wood, Coales and fuel, as shall be otherwise bought for any lucre or gaine. And that no person or persons shall alter any marke or Assize of any of the said fuell marked or Assized, according to this Statute, in paine of like forfeiture, as is aforesaid: The one half of al which forfeitures herein contained, shall be to the king our Soueraigne Lord, and the other half to him or them that will sue for the same by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, in any of the kings Courts of record, wherein &c. Prouided alwaies and be it &c. that no person or persons shall yeld ne forfeit any penalty herein conteined, vnlesse action or suit be commenced for the same within one whole yeare next after the offence thereof committed or done. And that if any cutter or Marker as is aforesaid, or other that shall forfeit any summes herein contained, shall not be able to yeld such forfeiture or summes as is aforesaid: That then such person thereof conuicted by witnesses or otherwise, to be set on ỳ Pillory in the next Market Towne to the place wher he shall so offend, by a Iustice of the Peace, or any other the kings Officers, at eleuen of the clocke vpon the market day, with a billet or faggot bounden to some part of his body, and so to be discharged of the saide forfeiture. Prouided also and be it enacted, that it shall be lawfull to euery person or persons, to buy, sell, marke, and cut billets for the onely seruing of the Towne of Calice, and the Marches of the same, so that they containe in length thirty ynches at the leaste, as it hath been there most accustomed forty yeares last past, without forfeiture of any penalty herein contained: Any thing herein containd to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. Anno 7. Ed. 6. cap. 7.

3 So much of the said Statute Anno 7. Ed. 6. cap. 7. as concerneth the forfeiture of three shillings 4. d. for euery shide of Tallwood, Billet, or Faggot lacking the Assise conteined therein, is repealed by 43. Eliz. cap. 14. And yet the Assise for the said tallwood, billet and fagots shall still continue in force, not onely for London and Westminster, but also in all other Cities, Boroughs and Townes corporate of this Realme, where such Tallwood, Billet and faggots are accustomed to be sold. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons, shall after the first day of May next now ensuing, bring any Tallwood, Billet, or Faggot to any Citie, Borough, or Towne corporate within this realm, there to be sold, or being brought, shal put ỳ same to sale, neither being of the assise mẽtioned in the said statute made in the 7. yere of K. Ed. 6. or agreeing with the measures hereafter in this act limited: that then vpon information thereof giuen to the Maior, Bailife, or other head Officer of the said Citie, Borough, or Towne corporate, they shall haue power & authority to call before them fiue good and lawful men of the said city, borough, or Towne corporate, and shall sweare them vpon their corporall othes, truely to enquire and present whether all or any part of the said Tallwood, Billet or faggots be of good and sufficient Assize according to the said Statute, and the limitation of Assize herein contained, or not. And if they shal present vpon their oathes, that any of the same Tallwood, billets, or faggots be not of such good and sufficient Assize as aboue said: that then the said Maior, Bailifes and other head Officers of the said Cities, Boroughs and Townes Corporate, by force this Act vpon their presentment, shall and may take such of the Tallwood, Billet and faggots, as be falsi sized, as forfeited, & shall deliuer the same vnto some Ouerseers for the poore in the said Cities, Boroughs, and Townes corporate, to be by them giuen & distributed to the poore there, according to their discretions from time to time, as often as such offences shall be presented, in manner and forme aboue said. And wherras in the said former statute it was enacted and limited, that euerie Tallshide shall conteine in length foure foote besides the carse, And euery Tallshide named one, should conteine in greatnes within one foot of the middest, sixtene inches about, & euery Tallshide named of two, to conteine in greatnesse within a foot of the middest, twenty and three inches about, And euery Tallshide named of three, to conteine in greatnes within one foot to the middest, twenty and eight inches about, And euery Tallshide named of foure, to conteine in greatnes within one foot of the middest, thirty three ynches about. And euerie Tallshide named of fiue, to conteine in greatnesse within one foote of the middest, thirty eight ynches about, And euery Billet to conteine in length, three foot foure inches. And euery billet named a single, to conteine seuen inches and a half about. And euery Billet named to be a cast, to conteine ten inches about, And euery Billet named of two Cast, to contein foure tene inches about. And euery faggot, bend, or sticke, to conteine in length

thrée foote, And the Band of euery such such faggot to be of foure and twenty inches about, besides the knot. In which act it was further enacted, that all Billets of two cast should be marked within six inches of the middest thereof, and euery Billet of one cast, to be marked only within foure ynches of the end thereof, as in the said act of Parliament amongst diuers other clauses, articles and prouisions doth and may appeare. And whereas diuers euil disposed persons euading from the true intent, good meaning & purpose of the said act of Parliament, haue cunningly deuised by cleauing of wood made, or to be marked for Tallwood or billet, and by stopping of Faggots with short stickes about the middest thereof, so to deceiue and abuse the subiects of this Realme, as many times they sell the one halfe or little more for the whole, and yet so cunningly caried, that by the strickt letter of the said statute they cannot be comptrolled, by reason the said statute vseth onely the word (About) & wanteth the word (Round.) And whereas by the true intent of the said statute, euery Bend of Faggot should be thrée foot, and the bond besides the knot foure and twenty inches, the said euill disposed people do not only make the said bends or faggot stickes more shorter but if any chance to be of sufficient length, then only one or two of those shall put in a faggot, and the bond filled vp with shorter sticks or bends, scarce one foot long, to the great dammage and deceit of her Maiesties subiects buying the same. For auoiding of all such deceits for euer hereafter, and to auoide all scruple, ambiguity, or doubt hereafter to be made of the said statute, or the true meaning thereof, And for that it must néeds be permitted to cleane great trées into Tall wood or Billet, for conueniency of vse: Be it therefore (for explanation of the true intent of the said statute) enacted by authority of this present parliament, That from and after the first day of May now next comming, euery Tall shide marked of one, being round bodied, shall conteine fyretéene ynches of assize in compas: being of halfe round, ninetéene inches of assize about, being quarter cleft, eightéene inches and an halfe of Assize about. And that euery Tall shide marked two, being round bodied, shall conteine in compasse thrée and twenty inches of Assize about: being halfe round seuen & twenty inches of Assize about: being of quarter cleft, 26. inches of Assize about. And euery Tal shide marked thrée, shall conteine in compasse (being round) eight & twenty inches of Assize: being halfe round, to conteine in compasse thrée and thirty inches of Assize: being of quarter cleft, 32. inches of Assize about. And euery Tall shide marked foure, to conteine in compasse (being round) thrée and thirty inches of assize: being halfe round nine and thirty inches of assize about: being of quarter cleft viij. & thirty inches of Assize about. And euery Tall shide marked fiue, shall conteine in compasse being round, eight and thirty inches of Assize about: being halfe round, foure and forty inches of assize about, and being quarter cleft, thrée and forty inches of Assize about. All which to be measured about within six inches of the middest thereof, and to conteine the length limitted by the said statute. And in all other formes or maner of cleauing of Wood, to be hereafter marked and sold for Tal wood, which will not admit the former formes or maner of cleauing, nor any of these, to obserue the Letter of the said statut of An 7. Ed. 6. ca. 7. And for ỳ better vnderstãding of the intent of this statut. Be it enacted by the ꝑ. that in euery one of these formes, the surplusage of compasse that shall happen betweene any two next measures, being aboue the one, & vnder the other in euery kinde, shall be demed, allowed, & taken to be for and to the benefit of the buyer, and not otherwise to be comptable. And be it further enacted by ỳ authority aforesaid, that euery billet named a single, shal conteine in compasse being rõd bodied, seuen inches and a halfe of Assize, & no singles to be made or marked out of cleft Wood. And euery billet marked one, commonly called a Cast, to conteine in compasse about, eleuen inches of Assize, being rouud, and being half round to cõteine in compasse thirtéene inches of Assize about and being quarter cleft to conteine in compasse about twelue inches and an halfe: And euery billet marked two, cõmonly called two cast, to conteine in compasse about, being round, syretéene inches of Assize: and being halfe round, to conteine in compasse about ninetéene inches of Assize: and being of quarter cleft, to contein in compasse about eightéene inches and a halfe of assize: And in all other formes or manner of cleauing of Billet to be hereafter marked and sold for billets, which will not admit the former formes or manner of cleauing, nor any of them, And touching the length of all the said Billet, to obserue the letter of the saids Statute of Anno 7. Ed. 6. cap. 7. And be it also enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, that all faggots hereafter to be made and put to sale, shall conteine in compasse besides the knot of the bond foure and twenty inches of Assize, and euery faggot sticke or bend within the said bond to conteine in length full thrée foot of assize or more, excepting only one stick or bend to be of one foot long, to stop or harden the binding thereof. For auoiding of which doubts, it be declared and explaned, and ordained by authority of this Parliament, that during ſo long time as her maieſty, her heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall be intituled to haue the ſaid profits by vertue of the ſaid eſtatute, ſhe and they may let and ſet, and make grants by copie of Court roll, and vſuall Woodſales and other things, to all intents & purpoſes, as a tenant pur terme dauter vie, lawfully may do. And further, that the ſaid determination, which is but a ſecret thought of the fugitiue, whatſoeuer his words or ſpéech be, is not material, but that the act and déed ſubſequent, viz. the not returning of euery ſuch fugitiue, according to his licence, and not hauing ſuch let or excuſe, as by the ſaid Statute is allowed (without any further matter) was, is, and ſhall be taken and deemed a ſufficient proofe of the precedent determination of the ſame party not to return, according to his licence: any thing to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And the Steward of euery Leet & Lawday shall make Estreats indented of all the fines, forfeitures, and amerciaments, for the defaults presented before him, and shall deliuer the one part thereof sealed and assigned by him to the Baylife or high Constable of euery Hundred, Rape, Lath, or Wapentake, wherein the defaults shall be presented, and the other halfe to the Constable and Churchwardens of the Parish wherein the defaults were made, the same to be yearely deliuered within sir weekes after the said Feast of S. And if no sufficient distresse can be found by the said Baylife or head Constable, or if the said offendor shall obstinately refuse to pay the said amerciament, fine or forfeiture, and doe not pay the same within twentie dayes after lawfull demaund of the same by the said Officer: that then euerie such person to forfeit the double summe that hee should before haue payed. 5 Because the time of the continuance of the Statute (2. and 3. Phil. and Ma. before 4.) is now expired, and yet the said Statute is very beneficiall, and most necessarie to be continued for the ease and Commonwealth of this land, Be it enacted &c. That the said Statute, and euery Article and Branch of the same, shall from henceforth be, stand, and continue in full force, effect, and strength, for and during the terme of twentie yeares next following, from and after the beginning of this present Parliament, and after the expiration of the said twentie yeares, to the end of the Parliament then next after the end of the said twentie yeares, to be holden and kept. And forasmuch as the said Statute made in the second and third yeares of King Philip and Quéene Marie, in diuers parts of this Realme serueth

not to so good purpose and effect, as it may be made, for that such substance and matter as is most fit and conuenient for the reparation of the said High wayes cannot be lawfully had, and fetched and taken out of the seuerall grounds and soyle thereunto nigh or adioyning, being no great losse or detriment to the owners of the same seuerall grounds and soyle, whereby the amendement of the sayd wayes is little increased, or else of very small and slender continuance, to the great and continuall charge of the poore people inhabiting thereabouts: For reformation whereof, and that the reparations of the said Highwayes may hereafter in good due manner well & sufficiently be made, Be it &c. That from henceforth it shall and may be lawfull to all and singular Superuisor and Superuisors, and orderers of the worke for the time being, for the amendement of the said High wayes, thereunto elected and appointed, according to the Statute made in the second and third yeare of King Philip and Quéene Marie (before 4.) for the better reparation and amendment of the Highwayes within their seuerall Parishes & Limits where they shall be so made Superuisors (if it shall be so to them thought necessarie) to take and carrie away of the rubbish or smallest broken stones of any quarrie or quarries, lying or being within the Parish where they shall be Superuisors without licence, controlment or impeachment of the owners or owner, so much as by their discretions shall be deemed & iudged necessarie to the amendment of the said wayes: And that for default of any quarrie or quarries, not being within their said Parish or Limits, or in default of rubbish not to be found in any such quarrie or quarries, it shall and may be lawfull to euery such Superuisor or Superuisors, for the vse aforesaid, in the seuerall grounds of any person or persons, being within the Parish and Limits where they shall be Superuisors, and nigh adioyning to the way or wayes wherein such reparations shall be thought necessarie to be made, and wherein grauell, sand, or sinder is like to be found, to digge or cause to be digged for grauell, sand, or sinder, and likewise to gather stones, lying vpon any lands or grounds within the Parish, and meet to be vsed to such seruice and purpose, and thereof to take & carrie away so much, as by discretion of the said Superuisors shall be thought necessarie to be imployed in the amendement of the sayd Highwayes. Prouided alwayes, That it shall not be lawfull to any such Superuisor or Superuisors, by vertue of this Act, to cause any rubbish to be digged out of any Quarrie or Quarries, but onely shall extend to such rubbish as shall be found there readie digged by the owner or owners of the sayd Quarrie or Quarries, or otherwise, by his or their licence and commaundement: Nor shall not extend to giue authoritie to any Superuisor or Superuisors to digge or cause to bee digged any grauell, sand, or sinder in the House, Garden, Orchard, or Wedow of any person or persons: Nor that it shall bee lawfull by this Act to any such Superuisor or Superuisors to cause any more pits to bee digged for grauell in any seuerall and inclosed ground then one onely, and that the same pit or hole so digged for grauell, as is aforesaid, shall not by any way be in breadth or length aboue tenne yards at the most. And that euery such Superuisor as shall cause any such pit to be made and digged for grauell, sand or sinder, as is aforesaid, shall within one moneth next after any such digging of pit made, cause the same to be filled & stopped vp with earth, at the costes and charges of the Parishioners, vpon paine to forfeit to the owner and owners of the soyle, wherein any such pit shall be made and digged, for euery default fiue Markes, to be recouered by Action of Debt, as in other like cases of Debt hath béene accustomed. And forasmuch as the Highwayes in sundry places of this Realme be full of continuall Springs and Water courses, by continuall increase and sinking whereof into the ground, the said wayes are not only very déepe and dangerous, but also for the most part impossible to be amended and repaired in any good and sufficient manner, without some further remedie prouided for the same: Be it therefore enacted, that from henceforth euery such Superuisor and Superuisors, as is aforesaid, shall by force of this Act, within the Parish or Limits where he or they shal be Superuisors, haue full power and authoritie to turne any such Water course, or Spring of water, being in any of the said Highwayes, into any ditch or ditches, of the seuerall ground or soyle of any person or persons whatsoeuer, next adioyning to the said wayes in such manner and forme, as by the discretions of the sayd Superuisors should be thought méetest and most conuenient. And be it further enacted &c. That the hayes, fences, ditches, or hedges next adioyning on either side to any high or common fairing way, shal from time to time be diked, scoured, repaired, and kept low, and all trées and bushes growing in the high wayes, cut downe by the owner or owners of the ground or soyle which shall be inclosed with the said hayes, fences, dikes, or hedges aforesaid, whereby the sayd wayes may bee open, and the people haue more readie and easie passage in the same. And bee it enacted, That from henceforth there shall be yearely six dayes, during the time and force of this Statute, obserued, vsed and imployed in reparation and amendement of the said High wayes, in like manner and forme, as the sayd foure dayes were limited and appointed to be obserued and kept by the said Statute made in the said second and third yeares of King Philip and Quéene Marie. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That from henceforth all and singular such Superuisor or Superuisors for the time being within one moneth next after default or offence made, done, or committed by any person or persons, contrarie to the prouision, purport, and true meaning of the sayd Statute made in the second and third yeares of King Philip and Quéene Marie, or contrarie to the prouision, purport, and true meaning of this present Act, shall present euery such default or offence to the next Iustice of Peace for the time being, vpon paine to forfeit for euery such default

And that euery such Iustice of Peace to whom any such default or offence shal be presented as is aforesaid, shall certifie the same presentment so to him made at the next generall Sessions within the said Countie then next after to be holden, vpon paine to forfeit for not certifying of euery such presentment of euery such default or offence, as is aforesaid, fiue pounds. And that the Iustices of Peace of euery Countie, where the said defaults or offences shall be committed, shall immediatly haue authoritie to inquire of any such default or offence committed within the limits of their Commission, at euery their Quarter Sessions, and to assesse such fines for the same, as they or two of thē, whereof one to be of the Quorum, shall thinke meet. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That euery Iustice of Peace shall haue authoritie by this Statute, vpon his owne proper knowledge in the open generall Sessions, to make presentment of any high way, not well and sufficiently repaired and amended, or of any other default or offence committed or done within the Countie and limits of his Commission, contrarie to the prouision and intent of this Statute, or the said Statute made in the second and third yeares of King Philip and Quéene Marie. And that euery such presentment made by any such Iustice of Peace vpon his owne knowledge, as is aforesaid, shall be as good and of the same force, strength, and effect in the Law, as if the same had béene presented, found, and adiudged by the oath of twelue men. And that for euery such default so presented, as is aforesaid, the Iustices of the Peace of the said Countie shall immediatly, at the said generall Sessions, haue authoritie to assesse such fines, as to them, or two of them, whereof the one to be of the Quorum, shall be thought meet: Sauing to euerie person or persons that shall be touched by any such presentment, to haue his or their lawfull trauers to the same presentment, as they might haue vpon any Indictment of Trespasse, or Forcible entrie, by the Lawes of this Realme, before the making of this Statute. And that all such fines, forfeitures and amerciaments to be assessed by the said Iustices of Peace at their generall Sessions, in any the cases aforesaid, shall be estreated by the Clerke of the Peace of the said Countie, and shalbe leuied in such manner and forme, and imployed to such vses & intents, as in the said Statute made in the second and third yere of King Philip and Quéene Marie is limited and appointed: this Act to continue for twentie yeares next after the beginning of this present Parliament, and from thence vntill the end of the Parliament then next to be holden. 6 Where in the Parliament holden at Westminster in the second & third yeares of the raignes of King Philip and Quéene Marie (before 4.) an Act was made and ordained for the amending and repairing of the Highwayes. And whereas there is one other Act made in the fift yeare of our Soueraigne Ladie the Quéene that now is (before 5.) for the better amendement of the Highwayes, wherein some doubts and defects haue béene: For explanation whereof, and better prouision hereafter to be made for amendement of Highwayes, Be it explaned and enacted &c. That euery person or persons (except such as shall dwell in the Citie of London) that shall be assessed to the payment of any Subsidie to her Maiestie to fiue pounds in goods, or forty shillings in land or aboue, during all such time as he shall stand so assessed and not altered, and being none of the parties chargeable for the amendement of Highwayes, by any former Law, but as a Cottager, shall finde two able men yearely to labour in the Highwayes, at such dayes and times, as by the said seuerall Statutes are limited and appointed. And euery other that hereafter shall occupie a Plough land in tyllage and pasture, lying and being in seuerall Parishes, shall be chargeable to the making of the wayes within the Parish where he dwelleth, as farre forth, and in such manner and forme, as any person hauing a Plough land in any one Parish, is or ought to be chargeable, by reason of the said former Statutes, or either of them. And that euery person and persons occupying and keeping in his or their hands or possession, seuerall or diuers Plough lands, as aforesaid in seuerall or diuers Townes, shall bee charged to find in each Towne or Parish (where the Plough lands being in his occupying doe lye) one Cart, Wayne, Tumbrell, Dungpot, or Court Sleads, Carres, or Dragges, furnished for the amendement & repairing of the Highwayes within the seuerall Parishes where the said Plough lands doe lye, in such manner and forme, as if he or they were a Parishioner dwelling within the Parishes where the same seuerall Plough lands doe lye. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That all and euery person & persons that shall not repaire, ditch, or scoure any hayes, fences, ditches, or hedges, adioyning to any Highway, or common fairing way, or shall not cut downe or keepe low all Trées and Bushes growing in or nert adioyning to any the said wayes, according to the true intent and meaning of the aboue recited Act, made in the fift yeare of the Quéenes Maiesties raigne that now is, for euery offence committed therein, contrarie to the true intent thereof, shall forfeit and lose for euery default tenne shillings. And that all and euery person and persons that shall occupie any lands adioyning to the said grounds, so adioyning to any such Highway, or common fairing way, where any ditching or scouring should or ought to be, as is aforesaid, shall from time to time, as need shall require, ditch and scoure in his and their ground so adioyning, whereby the water conueyed from the said Highway, or common fairing way, ouer the ground nert adioyning, may haue passage ouer the sayd ground so nert adioyning to the ground, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery time so offending, or euery Rod not so ditched and scoured vj. s. And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforesaid, That all and euerie Iustices of Assises, Iustices of Oyer and Iustices Iust. of P. terminer, Iustices of the Peace in their Sessions, Stewards Oyer & ter. and Stewards of Leetes and Lawdayes, in their Leetes and Lawdayes, shall heare and determine all and euerie offence, matter, and cause that shall growe, come, or rise by reason of this Statute.
Kings Ferrey Sheppey And where the Ferrie or passage called the Kings Ferrie within the Isle of Sheppey in the Countie of Kent, before the making of the Statute of High waies, was vsually repaired and maintained time out of memorie of man, at the charges of all the inhabitants and land occuppers within the whole Isle, by taration & sessement, at one Court and Lawday, time out of mind, yearely holden on the Munday next after the Feast of Pentecost, at Kinsborow within the sayd Isle, in the name of the Quenes Maiestie and her Progenitors, onely for the maintenance of the same Ferrie: Bee it therefore enacted, That the sayd Court shall be duely kept, in such manner and forme, as hath beene heretofore accustomed, and that it
Iurie shal and may be lawfull to and for the Iurie impanelled and sworne at the same Court, for the time beeing, by their discretions reasonably to assesse
Taxe and taxe themselues and all other the inhabitants and Land-occupiers of the said Isle indifferently, according to the rate of the Land in euery mans occupying, towards the maintenance of the saide Ferry and Passage, and the wayes belonging and leading to the same, so as no acre of fresh Marsh
Marsh and vpland be taxed aboue the rate of a peny in one yeare, nor of euery tenne acres of salt Marsh aboue the rate of a peny in one yeare. And that all and euery thing, profit, benefit, and commoditie, which heretofore hath beene giuen by any person or persons whatsoeuer, towards the maintenance of the said Passage or Ferrie, shall be had and leuied to the maintenaunce of the saide Passage or Ferrie.
Ferrie Warden And that the Ferrie-Warden for the time being, shall haue full power and authoritie to leuie, recouer and receiue the same, and the taxes and assessements of euery person and persons by way of di-
Estreats stresse, vpon the Estreates made out by the Steward of the said Court, as all Amerciaments are vsed to be leuied that are extreated out of other the Quenes Maiesties Leetes and Lawdayes: And that the said Ferrie-Warden, shall bestow the money so leuied, vpon the repairing and maintenance of the said Ferrie, Passage and Waies, and there-
Account of shall giue account, as they haue beene accustomed, to the Steward of the saide Court and Ha-mage, there to bee sworne at the next Law-day following, and all arrerages in his hands remaining, shall deliuer ouer to the nert Ferrie Warden, Arrerages on paine to forfeit the double of the said arrerages, to be leuied as other paines and amerciaments in the Court aforesaid assessed, and to be imployed to the maintenaunce of the saide Passage or Ferrie.
Iust. of P. Kent And forasmuch as the vsuall High way leading from the Market towne called Middleton to the said Ferrie, is presently in such decay, that neither man nor beast without great daunger is able to passe, whatsoeuer necessitie should sodainely happen for men to repayre into or out of the said Isle, and the Parish where the same lieth is not able to repayre the same: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawfull from hencefoth yearely during the space of tenne yeares, for three Iustices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, next inhabiting to the said Towne of Middleton within the said Countie of Kent, reasonably to assesse and taxe all and euery land-occupiers, dwelling out of the said Isle, and within foure miles distant from the saide Ferrie, as to their discretion shall seeme conuenient, not exceeding the summe of one penie, vpon euerie acre of fresh Marsh and Vp-land in one yeare, and vpon euery tenne acres of salt Marsh one penie in one yeare, and to assigne and appoint such person and persons as they shall thinke meete, for the collecting and imploying of the same vpon the Highwayes. And that it shall be lawfull for the said three Iustices for the time being, yearely during the saide tenne yeares, to take account and Account reckoning of the sayde person or persons, touching or concerning the sayd Money, so to be leuied or imployed. An 18. Eliz. cap. 10.

7 Whereas

7 Whereas in the Parliament holden in the eighteenth yeare of the Quéenes Maieſties raigne that now is, there was one verie neceſſarie and profitable Law then made, for the repairing and maintaining of the Ferrie and paſſage called the Kings Ferrie within the Iſle of Sheppey in the Countie of Kent, and for the vſuall highway leading from the Market Towne called Middleton to the ſayd Ferrie: In and by which Act or Statute for the repairing & amending of the ſaid highway leading from Middleton to the ſaid Ferrie being in great decay, it is amongſt other things enacted, That it ſhould be lawfull from thenceforth yearely during the ſpace of tenne yeares, for three Juſtices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, next inhabiting to the ſaid Towne of Middleton, within the ſaid Countie of Kent, reaſonably to aſſeſſe and taxe all and euerie land occupiers dwelling out of the ſaid Iſle, and within iij. miles diſtant from the ſaid Ferrie, as to their diſcretions ſhould ſéeme conuenient, not exceeding the ſumme of one penie vpon euerie acre of freſh marſh and vpland in one yeare, and vpon euerie tenne acres of ſalt marſh one penie in one yeare. And foraſmuch as vpō the letter of the ſame by any ſome doubt and queſtion hath riſen, Whether the ſaid Juſtices could ſeſſe any but ſuch as be land occupiers & dwelling out of the ſaid Iſle, and within foure miles diſtant of the ſaid Ferrie: And that thereby the taxations by them to be made by the letter of the ſaid Law, will not ſuffice to repaire the ſaid decayed wayes, for that the land & grounds lying out of the ſaid Iſle, and within foure miles diſtant from the ſaid Ferrie, are for the moſt part occupied by ſuch perſons as be inhabiting without the compaſſe of the ſaid foure miles, by reaſon whereof the ſaid highwayes remaine ſtill vnrepaired and not amended, and are growne into further decay then at the time of the making of the ſaid ſtatute they were, to the great daunger and anoyance of the Quéenes Maieſties ſubiects, paſſing by and through the ſame: For the better explanation of the ſaid Statute, and for the redreſſe of the ſaid wayes, Be it now enacted by the Quéene our Soueraigne Ladie, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, That yearely from henceforth for euer, betweene the Feaſt of Eaſter and the Feaſt of Pentecoſt, it ſhall and may be lawfull to and for ſix, fiue, foure, or three Juſtices of the peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, inhabiting within eight miles of the ſaid Towne of Middleton within the ſaid Countie of Kent, to aſſeſſe and taxe vpon all and euerie the lands and grounds lying and being without the ſaid Iſle, and within foure miles diſtant from the ſaid Ferrie, ſuch aſſeſſements and taxations, for, and towards the repairing and amending of the ſaid highway, as to them ſhall ſéeme reaſonable, notwithſtanding that the owners or occupiers of the ſame lands or grounds bee dwelling without the compaſſe of the ſaid foure miles, ſo that the ſame aſſeſſements and taxations exceed not aboue one penie for euerie acre of freſh marſh and vpland for one yeare, and not aboue one penie for euerie tenne acres of ſalt marſh for one yeare: The ſayd former Act or any article, branch, or thing therein contained to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. And that the ſaid taxations and aſſeſſements ſhall be leuied and imployed for and towards the repairing of the ſaid highway, by ſuch perſon and perſons dwelling out of the ſaid Iſle, within foure miles of the ſaid Ferrie, as by the Juſtices that ſhall aſſeſſe and taxe the ſame, ſhall be limited and appointed, and the ſame perſon and perſons ſo to be appointed, to haue like power and authoritie for the leuying thereof by diſtreſſe, in ſuch manner and forme as is limited to the ſaid Ferrie Warden by the ſaid recited Statute, for the leuying and gathering of aſſeſſements within the ſaid Iſle. And the ſaid perſon and perſons ſo to bee appointed to account and to deliuer the arrerages thereof (if any happen to be) to the ſaid Juſtices, at ſuch time and place as by them ſhal be appointed. Hor-

Horners.

ANno 4. E. 4. ca. 8. An Act is made concerning the Horners of London, to haue the choyce of hornes within foure and twentie miles of London, and for search of hornes in certaine places with forfeiture. See the Statute. But this Act is repealed by 1. Iac. cap. 25. but it is for the greatest part reuiued againe with some additions thereunto, as appeareth here 2.

2 In all humble manner shewen and beseechen your most excellent Maiestie, the Wardens and men of occupation of Horners of the Citie of London, That whereas in the Parliament holden at Westminster in the fourth yeare of the raigne of King Edward the fourth, grieuous complaint was made by men of the Occupation of Horners, being infranchised in the Citie of London, how that the people of strange lands hath come into this land, & into diuers parts therof, and hath bought by the hands of their Hostes and Guides, the great and chiefe stuffe of English Hornes vnwrought, of Tanners and Butchers, and carrie the same ouer the Sea, and there imploy the same in diuers workes, to the great dammage of this Land, and to the finall preiudice of a great number of men, being of the Occupation of Horners, It pleased the Kings Maiestie, by the aduice and assent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall in that Parliament assembled, and at the request of the Commons of the same, and by the authoritie of the same Parliament, to ordaine, establish, and enact, That from the Feast of Easter, which then should be in the yeare of our Lord God, one thousand foure hundreth fiftie fiue, that no stranger nor Alien, by himselfe, or by any other, should buy any English Hornes vnwrought, of any Tanners, Butchers, or of any other persons, gathered or growing within the said Citie, and foure and twentie miles on euerie side of the said Citie next adioyning: And that no Englishman nor other person, should sell any English Hornes vnwrought, to any Strangers, or cause them to be sent ouer the sea, so that the said Horners would buy the sayd Hornes at like price, as they were at the time of the making of the said Act, vpon paine of forfeiture of all such Hornes so bought, sold, or sent: And that the Wardens of the said Mysterie for the time being, by the sayd authoritie, should haue full power to search all manner of Ware pertaining to their Mysterie, wrought or to bee wrought, in all places within the sayd Citie of London, and foure and twentie miles on euerie side next adioyning to the same Citie, and within the Faires of Sturbridge and Elie, in whose hands they might bee found: And if they by their search find any such Ware or Stuffe in any place within the said Citie of London, and foure and twentie miles next adioyning to the same Citie, or within the Faires of Sturbridge and Elie, in whose hands soeuer they bee to sell, that was defectiue and insufficient, it should be lawfull to them to take the same Ware and Stuffe, and bring it before the Maior of the sayd Citie of London, the Maior or Bailifes of the aforesayd Faires for the time being, and the same there being proued defectiue, to be forfeit, the one halfe thereof to the Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other halfe to the said Wardens, to be ordered at their pleasure. In which sayd Act it is prouided, That after that men of the sayd Occupation within this Land haue taken out and chosen such and as many Hornes as should bee needful to their Occupation, That then it should bee lawfull to them all and euerie of them, and other persons of this Realme of England, to sell and deliuer all the Hornes refused, which be not able to be occupied in their Mysterie, to any Stranger or other person, to send or carrie beyond the Sea, or elsewhere as should please them: The which Act, in the Parliament holden at Westminster in the first yeare of your Highnesse raigne, was wholly repealed and made voyd. Forasmuch as since the repealing of the said Act, Strangers and Aliens by the hands of diuers of their Factors, Seruants, and Dealers for them, haue and doe (as before the making of the said Statute of Edward the fourth they did, that is) daily buy vp, and procure vnto themselues the great, and chiefe Stuffe of English Hornes vnwrought, of Tanners, and Butchers, and otherwise, and doe daily conuey and carrie them beyond the Seas, and there make them into diuers workes, whereby many Householders of your Maiesties Subiects that liued, and maintained their families, and payed Subsidies, and other dueties to your Highnesse, by the benefit of their labour in working the said Horns, hauing no other trade, or meanes, by labour to maintaine & keepe themselues, their wiues & children, the Companie being greatly increased, & the Stuffe altogether in a manner transported, occasioneth such a decrease of the Ware, as hereby the Companie is growne so poore and decayed, as in short time, if remedie be not prouided, they and theirs shall be vtterly vndone: And also by the repealing of the said Act, the Wardens of the said Horners of the said Citie of London, are disabled to search the Wares belonging to their said Craft, as well within the sayd Citie, as in other places in the said Act mentioned, And haue lost their gouernement in their Companie, Therefore pleaseth it your Highnesse, that it may be enacted &c. That the sayd Act, and euerie part and point thereof (Except power of Search within the Faires of Sturbridge and Elie, and except the limitation of such prices for Hornes as they were to be had for, at the making of the sayd Act) shall bee reuiued, and be of like force, power and vertue from henceforth, as if the same had not beene repealed. And be it further enacted &c. That no person or persons whatsoeuer, shall sell any English Horns vnwrough to any Stranger, or send any English Hornes vnwrought, ouer the Sea, contrarie to the true meaning of the said Act, vpon paine of forfeiture of double the value of the Hornes by him or them so sold or sent, The same forfeiture

And be it &c. That if the horſebread which any of the ſaid Hoſtelers or Inholders hereafter ſhall make, bee not ſufficient, lawfull, and of due aſſize, according to the price of graines and corne, as is aboueſaid: Then the Juſtices of the Peace in euerie Shire, Libertie, or Franchiſe within this Realme, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to inquire, heare and determine the ſaid defaults and offences of the ſaid Hoſtelers and Inholders, hereafter to be committed againſt the forme of this preſent Statute, and to ſeſſe ſuch fines, and make like Proces thereupon, as they commonly vſe to doe vpon preſentments of Treſpaſſe againſt the Peace. And that alſo likewiſe the Sheriffs in their Turnes, and Stewards in their Leets and Lawdayes, ſhall haue full power and authoritie, to inquire and determine euery ſuch default and offence of Hoſtelers, againſt the forme of this preſent Statute, hereafter to bee committed within the limits of their Iuriſdictions. ¶ Whereas question and doubt hath growen and risen, vpon the Exposition of a Statute made in the second Session of this present Parliament, Intituled, An Act against Vnlawfull Hunting and stealing of Deere and Conies (before &c.) for that in the body of the said Act, all vnlawfull hunting, driuing, or chasing out, or taking, killing, or slaying any Deere, or Conies, within anie the Parkes, places or grounds, in the saide Statute mentioned, against the will, minde, or pleasure of the Owners, Occupiers, or Possessioners of the same, (as well by day as by night) is prohibited and made Penall in such manner and forme, as in, and by the saide Statute, it doth and may more plainly appeare, And yet by a Prouiso in the said Statute contained, it is enacted, That the saide Act, nor anie thing therein contained, should extend to any Offence or Offences, concerning the Hunting, Chasing, or killing of Deere or Conies, which should be done or committed in the day time, but onely to such Offences, as should be then after done or committed in the night time onely: Anie thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding. For the Explanation of which doubt and question, and for that it is found by experience, That Malefactors of that kinde, haue bene much encouraged to Chase, Hunt, Kill and Destroy Deere in the day time, by colour of the saide Prouiso, whereby many Deere, as well in the Parkes of our Soueraigne Lord the King, as of many his Highnesse louing Subiects haue bene, and are still like to be, vnlawfully and riotously Chased, Hunted, and Destroyed by many idle, lose and disorderly persons: Be it &c. That from and after the Feast of Saint James the Apostle next insuing, so much of the saide Prouiso in the said Statute contained, as concerneth the Hunting, Chasing out, or killing of Deere onely, shall be repealed, frustrated and made voyde: any thing in the saide Prouiso of the saide Act contained, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. And whereas it was by the said former Statute, amongst other things enacted, That if any person or persons, did, or should wrongfully or vnlawfully hunt, chase, or driue out, or take, kill, or slay anie Deere within anie Parke, or other place in the saide Statute mentioned, against the will, minde, or pleasure of the Owners, Occupiers, or Possessioners of the same, that then euery such person so offending, should satisfie and pay vnto the party grieued, his treble damages, in such manner and forme, as in the said Statute is mentioned: By reason of the vncertainties whereof, few or no Offenders haue bene discouraged in their saide huntings, driuings, chasings out, taking, killing or slaying of Deere. For remedy whereof, Be it &c. That if anie person or persons, from and after the feast of Saint James the Apostle, next comming after the end of this present Session of Parliament, shall willingly commit any the Offences in the saide Statute mentioned, concerning the vnlawfull chasing out, hunting, driuing, taking, killing, or slaying of Deere in anie Parke, or Inclosed ground, which now is, or hereafter shall be made and vsed for Deere, against the will, minde or pleasure of the owners, occupiers, possessioners, or keepers of the same: that then al and euery such person and persons so offending, shall for euery such Offence, pay and satisfie to the partie grieued, the summe of tenne pounds of currant money of England, or else treble damages and costs, at the Election of the

the party grieued: The same to be recouered in such manner and forme, as in and by the said Statute is limited and appointed for the recouerie, taxing or assessing of the said treble damages. Any thing in the said Statute, or in this present Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding. This Lawe to continue vntill the end of the first Session of the next Parliament. Anno 7. Iac. cap. 13.

any thing aforesaid to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. And forasmuch as it is like to be, that some houses having twenty acres of ground or more, to them lying or belonging, be decayed without any willing default in the, that had the inheritance or possession therof, as by fire, breaches and surrounding of waters, or by destruction of enemies or Rebels, or of such as had particuler estates therein, without impeachment of wast, or by such other like meanes or waies: And that they who by the ordinance aforesaid, should reedifie the same, are of such pouerty that they cannot by all intendment reedifie or build vp all the same houses again. And forasmuch also as some perchance haue erected and builded vp new houses in some other places vpon the same lands lying to the said houses, or vpon some other land neere therunto, in lieu and place of the house decayed, which are as available to the common Wealth, as the newe reedifying of the decayed houses in the old places should be, in which cases equity requireth they should not be punished for the said decay. And for asmuch as it is like to be that some ground conuerted from tillage into pasture, is diuided into diuers small parcels remaining and being in diuers and seuerall mens hands, so that any one part will not be sufficient to keepe any Plough vpon: and for that some grounds haue beene tilled for destroying of Mosse, Bulhes, Broomes, Furzes, Heath, and not onely to be continued in Tillage, and such like: and that also some Demeanes in the absence of the owners haue beene diuided to sundry occuppyers, who haue tilled the same not being commonly vsed to tillage before the said feast of Saint George: and for that diuers other particuler causes, may fortune to bee, which the generall purueyance of this Statute cannot remedy, without greater hurt then good to be done by the same: And for that also that in some places of this realme, it is not necessary the purueyance of this Statute to extend and to be fully executed, but in some places, and vpon some occasions or causes, it may more conueniently be spared then put in vre, and is therefore necessary to refer such thing, with all other circumstances to the discretions of the Commissioners, who may more perfectly vnderstand the same: Be it therfore ordained and enacted by the authority of this present Parliament, that the said Commissioners or foure of them at the least, whereof two to be of the Quorum, shall and may consider the said cases, and such other like, & vse their discretions in tempering and qualifying of the said generall purueyance of this or any of the aforesaid former Statutes, and in ordering of the said cases, and such other like, and to omit the execution and penalty of this act, and of the other former acts accordingly, as to the wisdomes and discretions, of them or foure of them, at the least, whereof two to be of the Quorum, shall be thought most necessarie: This act or the aforesaid former acts in any wise notwithstanding. And shall haue power and authority to cancell Recognisances taken before them, and not appearing to them forfeited, if it shall seeme to them, or foure of them, whereof two to be of the Quorum, meete and conuenient. And it is further ordered and enacted &c. that whereas any ground by meanes of this Act, shall fortune hereafter to be conuerted from pasture into Tillage, according to the intent of this act, which ground is chargeable with any rent reserued, since the time that the same ground was conuerted from Tillage to Pasture, & which was reserued and made the greater, in consideration that the same was so conuerted from Tillage into Pasture, or stored with Conies, that all such rents, if they be greater then ẏ ground turned into Tillage, or the ground by reason of ẏ destruction of the Conies is worth, shall be abated and apportioned by the said Commissioners or foure of them, whereof we will two of them to be of the Quorum, according to their discretions, if they shall thinke the same so meete. Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the retaining or nonpaiment of any such part or portions of any rents, that shall be abated or deducted by the Commissioners, as is aforesaid, shall be no breach or forfeiture of any bond, penalty, couenant, grant or condition, to be contained in any Inuenture, Bond Obligatory, or other writing, agreement or promise whatsoeuer to the contrary notwithstanding. And be it further enacted by authority aforesaid, that the said Commissioners, or foure of them, whereof two of them to be of the Quorum, shall haue power, and authority by vertue hereof to make and direct forth precepts, and Processe, aswell to the Shirife of the County, as to all other Freeholders and persons that ought to attend or appeare before the said Commissioners, for the tryall, answering or proouing of any offence against this Statute, or against any of the aforesaid former Statutes, to appeare before them at any day, and time that the said Commissioners or iiij. of them, whereof two to be of the Quorum, shall limit or appoint, vpon the appearance of the said persons, to giue day ouer from time to time, as they shall thinke meete. And be it further enacted &c. that if any such person or persons as presently haue, or hereafter shall haue any houses builded or reedified, or to be reedified, or any grounds to be conuerted to tillage, according to the tenour and effect of this Statute, or of any of the aforesaid statutes: That then the said person or persons, their heires or assignes, shall within three yeares next after the end of this Session of Parliament, demise or let to farme the houses already builded or reedified with the twenty Acres of ground, which before time did appertaine or lie to the same or tenne Acres parcell thereof, if there be now no more of the same lands in their hands, that hath the houses builded or reedified, or ought to reedifie the same, or with somuch other lands, lying conuenient for the said houses: and shall demise and let to farme the houses hereafter to be reedified within two yeares after the same shall be so reedified with the twenty Acres of land, or the ten Acres parcell thereof, or the like number of acres, as is aforesaid. And be it ꝛc. that if any person or persons at any time after the Session of this present Parliament, shall conuert or turne to pasture any ground now being arable, and kept vsed commonly in Tillage, by the space of twenty yeares last past before the Session of this present Parliament, and shall not care and breake vp to Tillage, as much of the ground now being pasture within the said Lordship or Parish, where the said ground so conuerted doth lie, within one yeare next after any such conuersion, & shall not keep the same newe sowen ground continually in Tillage after any such conuersion, vnlesse that for barrennesse thereof, he or they shall conuert the same to pasture, vpon the like order of eating so much other ground being pasture within the said Lordship, where such conuersion shall be made, shall lose & forfeit for euery acre conuerted into pasture contrary to the forme of this act, yearly tne shillings. The one halfe thereof to the King and his heires, & the other to him or them that will sue for the same by bill, plaint, ꝛc. wherein ꝛc. This act to endure to the last day of the next Parliament. Anno 2. & 3. Ph. & M. cap. 2. This Act was continued 4. & 5. Ph. & M. cap. 9. And Anno 1. Eliz. ca. 5. to the end of the next Parliament: But see here the note next following.

6 The two Statutes (2. and 4. before) are repealed by the Statute now following. And yet see a Proviso in the last end of this next Statute hereof, whether so much of the said two Statutes is left in force, as so biddeth concerning of Tillage to Pasture, in such cases where the same is not forbidden by this Statute following, here 7.

7 For asmuch as the Statute 4. H. 7. cap. 19. (before 1.) and one other Statute made 7. H. 8. ca. 1. (before 2.) and the Statute made 27. H. 8. ca. 22 (before 3.) are very good and profitable lawes for the common wealth: It is therefore ordained ꝛc. that the said acts and euery of them, & euery branch and Article in the same, and euery of them contained, shall from henceforth be put in due execution & remaine & continue in force for euer more. And also where by an Act made in the 7. and twentieth yeare of the Raigne of our said late Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eight, whereby diuers and sundrie Religious houses of Monkes, Chanons, and Nunnes, which might not dispend in Lands, tenements, and hereditaments aboue the clere yearely value of 200. pound, were giuen to the said late king Henry the eight his heires and successors for euer: (which see Monasteries 9.) It is amongst other things enacted and ordained, that all and singuler persons, & bodies politike and corporate to whome the said late king Henry the eight, his heires & successors, after the making of ỳ same Act, should giue, grant, let, or demise any site or precinct with the houses thereupon builded, together with the Demeanes of any Monasteries, Priories, or other Religious houses that should be dissolued or giuen to the said late King Henry the viij. by that Act, and the Heires & Successors, or Assignes of euery such person, bodies politike or corporate, should keepe, or cause to be kept an honest & continuall house and houshold in the same site or precinct, and should occupie, or cause to be occupied yearely as much of the Demeanes in ploughing and Tillage of Husbandrie: that is to say, asmuch of the said demeanes which then were commonly vsed to be kept in Tillage by the Gouernours, Abbots, or Priors of the saide Houses, Monasteries, or Priories, or by their Farmer or Farmers occupying the same, within the time of twenty yeares next before that act, vpon paine to forfeit to the kings highnesse for euery Moneth so offending, fiue pound thirteene shillings foure pence, to be recouered to his vse, in any of his Courts of Recors. And ouer that, by the same Statute it is enacted that all Justices of peace in euery shire where any such offences should be committed and done contrary to the true meaning and intent of that act or Statute, should in euery quarter & generall Sessions within the limits of their Commission, inquire of the premisses, and should haue full power and authority to heare and determine the same, and to take and assesse no lesse fine for euery of the said offences, then is before limited for the said offences; and Estreates thereof to be made and certified into the Kings Exchequer, according and at such time and forme, as other Estreates of fines, issues, and amerciaments be made by the same Justices, as by the same act more at large doth appeare: Which part of the said act, concerning keeping of house & houshold in the said site and precincts, & occupying of such Demeanes of the same in Tillage, as is aforesaid, then was and yet is thought very benificiall to the Common wealth, and most needfull to be put in due execution: Be it therefore

And for asmuch as there hath beene sithence the making of this said Statute, certaine other lawes and statutes made in the time of our late Soueraigne Lord king Edward the first (which see before 4.) and in the time of our late Soueraigne king Philip and Quéene Mary (which see before 5.) for the reedifying of decayed houses of husbandry, and for the increase of Tillage, which being in some parts thereof vnperfect, and in some places too milde and gentle, haue not brought to the decayed state of Tillage, & of houses of Husbandrie, ỳ long looked for remedie, which was then hoped for: Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said lawes & statutes made in the times of the said late K. And that by the authoritie of this act, it shall bee lawfull for him or them to leuy the same penalty and forfeiture of ten shillings, for euery acre by distresse, and to iustifie or make their auowries or cognisances for the same, in such manner & forme, as any person or persons may doe for rents reserued vpon estate or estates made for terme of yeres, of any land or tenements: or otherwise shall and may sue for the same penalty & forfeiture by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in any Court of Record, of the Quéene our Soueraigne Lady, her heires or successors, wherein no wager of law, essoine or protection shall be allowed or admitted for the party defendant. And if they or any of them doe not distreine, or otherwise claime or demaund the said penalty and forfeiture by any the waies or meanes aforesaid, within the space of one whole yeare next after the offence done, in forme aboue said, and pursue for the same with effect, without fraude or couin, and do not recouer (and might haue recouered the same) with such speede, as may be by the due order of the law: That then after such default, it shall be lawfull for him or them to whom the reuersion or remainder of the fee simple of the said land shall appertaine, their executors or administrators, to distrein, auow, or make cognisance and iustifie, or otherwise to sue for the said forfeiture & paines, in forme aforesaid, at any time within one yere next ensuing any such default. And in his or their default the said penalty or forfeiture, to goe and be to the immediate Lord or Lords of the fee or fees, of whome the said lands beene holden, to be recouered in maner and forme aforesaid, so that he or they doe take and sue for his or their remedy therein, within one yeare next insuing any such default, in maner and forme aforesaid. And in his and their default the said penalty and forfeiture to goe and be to the Quenes Highnesse, her heires and successors, to be recouered by any of the meanes or remedies aforesaid, at any time or times, at her or their wils and pleasures, or otherwise to any other person or persons, that will sue as well for the Maiestie, her heires and successors, as for him or themselues, for the same paines and forfeitures, vpon which sute, the one moitie shall be and goe to the Quenes Maiestie, her heires or successors, and the other to him or them that will sue for the same, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in any of the Quenes Courts of Record, wherein no essoine, protection, or wager of law shall be admitted or allowed for the party defendant. And be it &c. That if any person or persons being an occupier and owner of any such lands and grounds as is aforesaid, of any estate of inheritance, shall offend against the forme of this act: That then the said penalty and forfeiture shall go and be to the next immediate Lord or Lords of the fee or fees thereof, his or their executors or administrators, to be recouered by such waies and meanes as before is limited and appointed, so that he or they do pursue and take their remedy for the same, in forme aforesaid, within one yeare next after such offence committed. And that the saide Acts and Statutes, now by this present Act repealed, shall for and in respect onely of the saide informations and sutes, and euery of them so now depending, stand, remaine, and be in such like force and effect, as they and euerie of them were before the making of this Act: any thing herein contained to the contrarie hereof notwithstanding. And whereas some doubt and question hath heretofore risen and beene moued vpon certaine words contained in the said Statute, made in the said fourth yeare of the raigne of our late King Henry the seuenth, that is to say, vpon these words: House or houses letten to farme, with twenty acres of land at the least, or more, lying in Tillage and Husbandrie, whether the same twenty acres of land or more, should be accounted & taken to be all arable land, & wholy put in Tillage or not, and also what quantity and measure euery acre should be of, and conteine: For a plaine and perfect declaration and interpretation whereof, Be it enacted, and declared by the authority of this present Parliament, that the said Statute is and shall be expounded and taken to extend to house or houses that now haue or hath, or at any time heretofore, sithen the first yeare of the raigne of the said late King Henry the seuenth haue or hath had, or that hereafter shall haue twenty acres of ground to the same house or houses lying or belonging, or with the same commonly occupied or vsed, although the same ground hath not beene, is, or shall be all wholly vsed as arable Land, and put in Tillage, but onely some part thereof, and that the content of euerie acre shal be taken and rated after the rate and measure limitted and appointed in the ordinance or treatise De terris mensurandis (which see hereafter in Weights 5. and 6.) Any ambiguity, doubt, or thing whatsoeuer to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. Prouided alwaies, &c. that if any person or persons hath, or at any time hereafter shall sustaine any penalty, forfeiture, or losse, for, or by reason of any offence committed or done contrary to the tenour or effect of this Act, or any other of the Acts before recited and confirmed: that then he or they shall not be essoynes sued, vexed, or impeached for the same offence: any thing in this act, or in any other of the acts aforesaid had or made to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. And be it enacted, that the Lord Chancelor or L. Keeper of the great seale of England for the time being, shall haue ful power and authority by vertue of this act, from time to time to award and direct a Commission or commissions vnder the great seale of England into euery shire or County within this realm and Wales, to such persons as by his wisdome and discretion shall be thought most meet and conuenient, authorising them or foure of them at the least, by vertue thereof, and of this act, to enquire and search out within euery towne, Village, Parish, & Hamlet within their Commission, by the othes of fiue lawful indifferent persons, or otherwise, according to their good discretions of the offences committed or done against this Statute, or any other the statutes before mentioned, and by this act confirmed, & whether any person or persons to whom any penalty and forfeiture is giuen, limitted or appointed by the same, or any of them, haue taken the benefit or aduantage of the said forfeitures & pains or not, according to the same lawes and Statutes. And that within three mōths next after euery such inquiry & search, the said Commissioners or foure of them at the least, shal make certificate thereof, & of their doings, by ỹ vertue of the said Cōmission, vnder their hands & seales, into the High Court of Chauncery, vpon paine of forfeiture of euery such Commissioner xx. pound sterling to the Queenes Maiestie her heires & successors. And that the same Commissioners, or two of them at the least, shall haue authority & power by vertue of this act, to direct their precepts to the shirifes of the County, being within the limits of their commission, to warn as many honest men of his Bailiwike as the saide Commissioners shall appoint, by whome the truth in the premisses may be best knowne, to enquire & true presentment make of al & euery offences commited or done contrary to ỹ said acts, or any of thē, & to set such reasonable fines & amerciaments vpon such persons as shal make default of their apparances, or making their apparances shall neglect to do their duties in & about the execution of the premisses, as to the same Cōmissioners or foure of them shall be by their discretions thought meet and conuenient, so that the same fines or amerciaments, for any one default exceed not the sum of twenty shillings. And that the same fines and amerciaments so by them taxed and set, shall be yearely well and truely estreated into the Court of Eschequer, and there to be leuied to the vse of our Soueraigne Lady the Quene her heires and successors, as other fines and amerciaments haue beene there accustomed and vsed to be leuied. And that if the Shirife to whome such precept shall be awarded, shall be remisse or negligent in serching the precept, and returning of the same, at the time and place appointed and prefixed in the same precept, that then the said Commissioners or foure of them, shall for euerie such default, assesse and taxe vpon the said Shirife x.l. and shal estreat the same into the said Court of Eschequer, to be leuied to the Quenes Maiesties vse, her heires and successors, as is aforesaid. Prouided alwaies, that it shall not be lawfull to any Shirife, Undershirife, or Shirifes Deputy, to infringe or enter into any any Liberties or Franchises, for the execution of any such precept, but also shall make his Mandatum to the Bailife of the Franchise or Liberty for the executing and seruing of the same. And that the Bailife of euery such Franchise and Liberty, shall serue and execute the said precept according to the tenour thereof, in such like manner & forme as the Shirif should or ought to haue done, if it had bin within his Bailiwike, vpon paine of forfeiture of v.l. to be estreated & leuied, as is aforesaid. Prouided also &c. that putting of any lands or tenements hereafter from Pasture to tillage, according to the tenour and effect of this act, shall not in any wise extend to be any cause of breach or forfeiture of any bond, couenant, paiment or condition made, or hereafter to be made betweene any person or persons, bodies politike or corporate, which in any wise is or shall be repugnant or contrary to this act Prouided alwaies that this act, or any thing therein conteined, shall not extend to giue any benefit, aduantage, or liberty to any person or persons, which at any time sithence the said feast of Saint George the martyr, haue conuerted or imployed or hereafter shall conuert or imploy any more ground to the keeping of Conies, not being lawful warren then fiue acres at the most, and the same to be with in one mile of his dwelling house, and also not noisome or hurtfull to the Corne of any person or persons, other then of the owner of the same ground, so that he or they put and keepe in Tillage asmuch or as many acres of his owne proper ground lying within the said Manor, Lordship or parish, as the said conigrey shall conteine aboue the said number of fiue Acres, that hath not heretofore been liable to be continued in Tillage by force of any law or statute: any thing in this act before mentioned, to the contrary hereof notwithstanding. And where also by the said statute of Henrie the seuenth the meaning of the makers thereof appeareth to be, that euery house of husbandrie, hauing twenty acres of land or more belonging or lying thereunto, or with the same commonly occupied, vsed, or demised, the same twenty acres or more should not be severed or diuided from the said house or houses, but should be demised, occupied or vsed together, for the better maintenance of euery such house or houses & of tillage and husbandrie: Be it therefore enacted, that no person or persons whatsoeuer, hauing, or that hereafter shal haue any house or houses of husbandrie, with twenty acres of land belonging or lying thereunto, or with the same commonly occupied, vsed, or demised, shall from & after the first day of this present Parliament, sever or diuide the said twentie acres of Land or more, nor any part therof, from any of the said house or houses, vnlesse the same be kept in tillage or otherwise for the profit of husbandry, according to the nature of the ground, or according to the custome of the manors where the same land shall so be, vpon the paines & forfeitures conteined in the said statute of Henry the seuenth, to be taken in such forme, as by the same statute appeareth, except he or they shall lay and assigne to the said house or houses, or to any other house or houses, being within the same parish or Lordship, or within two miles of the said houses, being bound to be maintained and vpholden by the forme of the said statute of King Henry the 7. asmuch other land within the same parish or Lordship, within two miles, as is aboue said, for and in lieu of such, or somuch of the former land, as ought to haue continued by force of the said statute with the former house, and cannot conueniently be returned to the said former house. And be it &c. that if any such house or houses of Husbandrie and land be diuided or severed the one from the other by reason of any lease or leases, for terme of life, liues, or for terme of yeares, made or granted before the first day of this present Parliament: ỳ then whensoeuer the said lease or leases shal end or determin, by any maner of means, so as ỳ same house or houses & lands thereunto belonging, shal be discharged of all such leases: the same house and houses & lands so demised, shall not afterwards be severed or diuided the one from the other, but shall goe, be kept, & occupied together at all times after, according to the declaration before mentioned, vpon the paines and forfeitures last before specified, and to be taken also as in the said statute is mentioned: Except by returning or reuniting of the same land to the said house, there shall or may growe any manifest decay of any other houses newly edified, or of any other farmes that hath beene by meanes of distribution or seuerance of the land or lands, or any part thereof, made or assigned to be seuerall tenements or holds. And where the said Statute made in the said seuenth yere of the raigne of the said King Henrie the eight, among other things in the same it is enacted, that if sithence the first day of the same Parliament, any lands which at the same first day, or sithence the same first day were commonly vsed in Tillage, were inclosed, or from thenceforth should be inclosed and turned onely to pasture, whereby any house of Husbandrie then was, or hereafter should be decaied, that then all such lands should be by the owner and owners thereof, their heires successors, or assigns, or other for them, within one yeare next ensuing the same decay, put in Tillage, and exercised, vsed, and occupied in husbandrie and Tillage, as they were the first day of the same parliament, or at any time sithence, and after the maner & vsage of the coûtrey where such lands do lie, as by the said act more plainely may appeare. And for asmuch as vpon the said part of the said statute diuers doubts and questions haue beene moued heretofore: Be it therefore enacted and declared by authority aforesaid, that if at any time sithence the making of the said act, & before the said feast of S. George, in the said twentieth yere of the Raigne of the said late King Henry the eight, any lands belonging to any such house of husbandrie, as is aforesaid, haue beene turned from tillage to pasture, by any person or persons: that then the same lands or so much other lands being within the same parish, Lordship or Manor, that heretofore was not liable or bound by any Law or Statute, to be kept in Tillage, shall be turned againe into Tillage, within one yeare next after the Session of this present parliament, and kept in tillage for euer, accor-

Anno 13 Eliz. cap. 10. (before 5.) diuers of thoſe Eccleſiaſticall perſons haue made new leaſes, long before the expiration of the former yeares, contrary to the true meaning of the ſaid Statute: Be it therefore enacted by this preſent Parliament, That all leaſes hereafter to be made by anie of the ſaide Eccleſiaſticall, Spirituall, or Collegiate perſons, or others, of any their ſaid Eccleſiaſticall, Spirituall, or Collegiate lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof any former leaſe for yeares, is in being, not to be expired, ſurrendred, or ended within three yeres, next after the making of anie ſuch new leaſe, ſhall be void, fruſtrate, and of none effect: any lawe, vſage, or cuſtome to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And be it likewiſe &c. That all and euery band and couenant whatſoeuer, hereafter to be made, for renewing, or making of anie leaſe or leaſes, contrarie to the true intent of this Act, or of the ſaide Act made in the ſaide thirteenth yeare of Elizabeth ſhall be vtterly voide: anie lawe, ſtatute, ordinance, or other thing whatſoeuer to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Prouided alwayes, that this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend or be preiudiciall, to make fruſtrate or void anie leaſe or leaſes, heretofore made by any of the ſaid Spirituall or Eccleſiaſticall perſon or perſons, or any of them, but that the ſame, and euery of them, are of the like force and effect, as they or any of them were before the making of this preſent ſtatute: This Act or any thing therein contained to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And where ſir Tho. White, late Knight and Alderman of London, for aduancement of good learning, hath founded one colledge in the Vniuerſitie of Oxford, called S. Iohn Baptiſts colledge, and being ſeiſed of the manor of Fifhide, alias Fifield in the Countie of Berk. did together with all other his lands, tenements, and hereditaments, giue and aſſure the ſaid manour with the appurtenances, to the Preſident and Scholers of the ſaid Colledge for euer: (And nuerthelelle the ſaid ſir Th. White (hauing then one Ralph White his brother liuing and ſundrie kinſmen, to whom by courſe of the common Law his lands might haue deſcended) did deuiſe and order, and by the ſtatutes which he prouided for the ſaid Houſe, and by order of the now Viſitor of the ſaid Colledge: it is ordained, That the ſaide manour of Fifhide, alias Fifield, with the appurtenances, ſhould be demiſed by the ſaid Preſident and Scholers, for the time being, to the ſaid Ralph, for the terme of fourſcore and nineteene yeeres, if the ſaid Ralph ſhould ſo long liue, and ſo it is intended, that from heire male to heire male of the ſaid ſir Thomas White, new demiſes ſhould from time to time be made of the ſaid manour with the appurtenances, to euery ſuch heire male ſucceſſiuely, for the terme of fourſcore and nineteene yeares, if ſuch heire male ſhould ſo long liue, yeelding to the ſaid Preſident and Scholers for the time being, ſuch rent as now is reſerued, with ſuch further couenants and conditions, as by the ſaid ſir Thomas White, or Viſitor, is agreed and appointed. And where ſithen the deceaſe of the ſaid ſir Thomas White, the ſaid aſſurances to the ſaid Preſident and Scholers, in all, or the moſt part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of the ſaid Founder, were found in ſome reſpect imperfect, and inſufficient in law, (and that thereupon the ſaid Ralph White, to whom the aduantage of ſuch imperfection came by Lawe, did neuertheleſſe take no ſuch aduantage, but did willingly make perfect the ſaid aſſurances, according to the true meaning of the ſaide ſir Thomas White his brother, accepting onely one leaſe of the ſaid manour, in ſuch ſort as by the ſaid Viſitor was appointed, with the copyholds, and other appurtenances of the ſaid manour.) For remedy whereof be it enacted, That the Preſident and Scholers of the ſaide Colledge, may from time to time demiſe the ſaide manour, copyholds, and other appurtenances, to euery heire male of the ſaid ſir Thomas White ſucceſſiuely, according to the forme of the leaſe thereof already made to the ſaid Ralph, & that euery ſuch leaſe ſo to be made, and euery couenant made, or to be made for the performaunce of the ſame, ſhall be good in law, as if the ſaid Act made in the ſaid thirteenth yeare of Elizabeth had neuer beene had nor made: Any thing in the ſaide Act made in the ſaide thirteenth yeare, or any other Act or matter whatſoeuer to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And whereas in one other ſtatute made in the ſaid thirteenth yeare of her Maieſtie, intituled, An Act touching Leaſes of Benefices, and other Eccleſiaſticall liuings with cure, (before 6.) one clauſe is contained, That the Incumbent offending the purport of the ſaid ſtatute, ſhall for the ſame loſe one yeares profite of his ſaid Benefice, to be diſtributed by the Ordinary among the poore of the Pariſh, as by the ſaid Warraunt in the ſaid laſt recited ſtatute appeareth: Be it therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that after complaint made to the Ordinarie, and ſentence giuen vpon any offence committed by the Incumbent, whereby he ſhall or ought to loſe one yeares profit of his Benefice, as afore ſhewed: that the Ordinarie within two months after ſuch ſentence giuen, and requeſt to him made by the Churchwardens of the ſaid pariſh, or one of them, ſhall grant the ſequeſtration of ſuch profites, to ſuch inhabitant or inhabitants within the Pariſh where ſuch Benefice ſhall be, as to him ſhall ſeeme meete and conuenient: And vpon default therein by the Ordinary, that it may and ſhall be lawfull to euery pariſhioner, where the benefice is, to retaine and keepe his or their tythes, and likewiſe for the Churchwardens of the ſaid pariſh, to enter and take the profites of the Glebe Lands, and other Rents, and duties of euerie ſuch Benefice, to be imployed to the vſe of the poore, as aforeſaid, vntill ſuch time as Sequeſtration ſhall be committed by the Ordinarie, and then as well the Churchwardens, as Pariſhioners, to yeelde accompt of, and make payment to him or them, to whom ſuch Sequeſtration ſhall be committed: And that he or they to whom ſuch Sequeſtration ſhall be committed, from time to time, ſhall iuſtly and truely imploy and beſtow the ſaid profits, or the true and iuſt value thereof, without fraude or guile, to ſuch vſes, as by the ſaid ſtatute

And also shall haue authority to punish as wel all such transgressors as shall offend in the breaking of such good order as shall be hereafter made, for such of the Quenes Maiesties subiects as shal haue occasion to trauel and passe by the same new cut riuer, as also euery other person and persons which shall breake such good and wholesome rules & orders as shall be prouided and ordained for the preseruation, keeping, and maintaining of the said riuer, and euery part thereof. haue not béne duely kept, becauſe that they that doe contrarie to the Statutes and ordinances, before the ſaid Iuſtices, cannot be indicted by reaſon of the great maintenances in this behalfe vſed: Our Soueraigne Lord the King, willing to expell ſuch maintenances, hath ordained by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Iuſtices ſhall haue power by the ſame authoritie, as well at the Kings ſuit, as the parties, to award writs of Attachment and diſtreſſe, againſt them, which from henceforth do the contrarie of the ſaid Statutes and ordinances, in the Counties where they hold their Seſſions, directed to the Sherife of the ſame Counties, returnable before the ſame Iuſtices or Iuſtice for the time being, in their Seſſions. And if the ſaid Sheriſes returne, that they againſt whom ſuch writs iſſued, haue nothing, then a Capias and Exigent ſhall bée awarded againſt them, in the manner as ſhall bée done againſt them that be indicted before Iuſtices of Peace, of treſpaſſe done with force and armes againſt the Kings peace. And if they appeare at any of the ſaid writs, the ſaid Iuſtices ſhall haue power and authoritie aforeſaid, to examine them of the matters aforeſaid. Prouided alſo, That all the Statutes and ordinances before made and not repealed, of Liueries of clothes, by Lords giuen or to be giuen (before 5.) againſt the forme of the ſame Statutes, ſhall ſtand in their force. And that this Statute extend not (as to the execution of examination) to the Sheriſs of London, Maiors for the time that they ſhall be Officers, Seriants of the Law, at the time that they take the ſame eſtate vpon them: to them that doe commence in the Vniuerſities within the Realme of England, at the time of their commencement: Nor to them which during the times aforeſaid, ſhall take any Liueries of them. And alſo that all thoſe that ſhall take any ſuch Liueries of cloth or of hats, of any Lord Spirituall or Temporall, or of any great Ladie, in or of England, againſt the forme of the ſaid Statutes, they ſhall be likewiſe examined and puniſhed in the manner as they that take ſuch Liueries of Knights, or other of leſſe eſtate, as before. Prouided alwayes, That in the time of warre it ſhal be lawfull to the Lords, Knights, and Eſquires, that doe trauell in ſuch warre, to giue their Liueries of clothing, or of hats, to their ſouldiers, and in ſuch wiſe as to them beſt ſhall ſéeme. 2 Where diuers and ſundrie perſons, taking vpon them the Art and Myſterie of Malt making, and ſundry other perſons, tending more their owne priuate lucre, gaine, and profit, then the wholeſome victualling of the Kings Maieſtie, the Nobilitie of this Realme, and other his Graces ſubiects, haue now of late by their vnſatiable, couetous, and greedie minds, accuſtomably and commonly made much Malt, vnpure and vnſeaſonable, for that they haue made the ſame Malt in eight or nine dayes, where indeed the ſame cannot bee well and perfectly made, vnleſſe it haue the time and ſpace of twelue dayes in the making thereof. And where alſo diuers and ſundrie of the ſaid makers of Malt, commonly haue and doe ſlackly and deceitfully drie the Malt ſo by them made, for that they would haue an inordinate increaſe thereof, by the ſwelling of the ſaid Malt, whereby the ſame Malt not being ſufficiently dried, cannot bee kept any long time or ſpace, but it will be muſtie and full of weuels, whereby no wholeſome drinke for mans bodie can by any meanes thereof be made, which is not onely to the great perill and daunger of the Nobilitie, and other the Kings Highneſſe ſubiects, within this Realme, and alſo to the great loſſe and decay of the Commonwealth of the ſame, but alſo an vtter impoueriſhment of the Brewers of this ſaid Realm, for that the ſaid Brewers (ouer and beſides the vnwholeſomneſſe of the drinke, which is commonly made thereof) cannot make ſo much drinke of fiftie quarters of Malt, being ſo euill dried and made, as they might and can make of fortie quarters, being well and truely made. And alſo, foraſmuch as diuers and ſundrie perſons, minding and ſeeking their owne priuate and exceſſiue gaine and profit, forgetting thereby their duetie, and the order or charitie towards the Commonwealth and their neighbors in this behalfe, doe commonly vſe to put and mixe good Malt and euill Malt together, & after put the ſame Malt to ſale, as good Malt, whereby many of the Kings ſubiects haue been, & are like to be verie often deceiued, to their great loſſe and hinderance, contrary to the honeſt, ſeemely, and godly buying, ſelling, and commutation that ſhould and ought to be amongſt Chriſtian people, ſpecially in things concerning the ſuſtentation & ſuſtenance of mans bodie: For remedie whereof be it enacted &c. That no ſuch perſon or perſons at any time after the firſt day of March next comming, ſhal make any barley Malt (the monethes of June, July, and Auguſt only excepted) but that the ſame ſhal haue in making thereof, that is to ſay, in the fat, ſlowze, ſteeping, and ſufficient drying of the ſame Malt, three weeks at the leaſt, and that no ſuch perſon or perſons at any Making. 3. Weekes

time within the said monethes of June, July, and August, shall make any Barley Malt, except the same haue in the fat, stowe, steeping, and sufficient drying, the time and space of 17. dayes at the least, vnder and without which time and times, the said Malt cannot be well and perfectly made, nor wholesome for mans bodie: vpon paine to forfeit and lose for euerie quarter of Malt which shall bee made by any person or persons, contrarie to the tenor, purport, and true meaning of this Act v. shillings. And be it further enacted &c. That no person or persons, after the first of March nert comming, shall mingle, or put together any Malt, not being well and sufficiently made, or being made of mowe burnt, or spired Barley, with other good Malt, and after put the same so mingled to sale, vpon paine to forfeit and lose for euerie quarter so mingled and put to sale, v. s. And be it also further enacted &c. That if any person or persons after the last day of Januarie nert comming, shall put to sale any Malt which shall not be sufficiently and well troden, rubbed, and well fanned, whereby there may be conueniently fanned out of one quarter thereof halfe a pecke of dust or more, that then the person so putting the same to sale, shall forfeit and lose for euerie quarter so put to sale xx. d. The moitie of all which forfeitures to be to the King our Soueraign Lord, and the other moitie therof to the partie that will sue for the same by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in any of the Kings Courts, wherin no Protection, Wager of law, nor Essoine, nor Iniunction, shall be admitted or allowed. And be it further enacted &c. That the Iustices of peace in euerie of their Sessions, and also the Steward in euerie Leet, shall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this Act, to inquire heare and determine as well by presentment of twelue men, as by accusation or information of two honest witnesses, of, for, and vpon, all and euerie the offences and forfeitures aforesaid, as well for the King, as for the partie that shall sue, procure, or cause the same to be presented, as is aforesaid. And that the Bailifes and Constables of euerie Borough, or Market Towne, or other Town where any such Malt shal be made, or put to sale, shall haue full power and authoritie from time to time to view, search, and survey all such Malt as shall be made, or put to sale, within any of the said Townes. And if any of them shall thereupon find any Malt so put to sale, being euill made, or mingled with euill Malt, contrarie to the tenor and true meaning of this present Act: That then the said Bailise or Constable so finding any such Malt euill made, or mingled as is aforesaid, with the aduise of one Iustice of P. within the same Shire, shall cause the same to bee sold to such person or persons, and at such reasonable price or prices, and vnder the common price of the Market, as to his discretion shall seeme necessarie and expedient. Prouided alwayes and be it enacted &c. That this Act nor any thing therein contained, shall not extend to charge, or be, to the making of Malt, for any mans owne prouision for his owne house or familie, neither preiudiciall to any person or persons, for, or concerning any of the offences or forfeitures aforesaid: Except he or they so offending, shall happen to be sued, presented, and accused for the same, in manner and forme aforesaid, within one yere nert after any such offence or offences to be done or committed: Any thing in this present Act to the contrarie notwithstanding. 50 Whereas it hath béene time out of mind an vſage amongſt Marchants, both of this Realme and of forreine nations, when they make any great aduenture (ſpecially into remote parts) to giue ſome conſideration of mony to other perſons (which commonly are in ſo ſmall number) to haue from them aſſurance made of their goods, marchandiles, ſhips, and things aduentured, or ſome part thereof, at ſuch rates, and in ſuch ſort, as the parties aſſurers & the partie aſſured can agrée, which courſe of dealing

For remedy whereof, be it &c. That it be lawfull for the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the great ſeale of England, for the time being, to award vnder the great Seale of England, one generall or ſtanding Commiſſion, to be renewed yearely at the leaſt, and otherwiſe ſo oft, as to the ſaid L. And be it &c. that aſwel the ſaid act of Parliament, intituled, An act declaring the eſtablithmẽt of the ſucceſſion of the kings moſt royall Maieſtie of the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, made in fiue and twentieth yeare of the Raigne of the King your father (s. cap. 22.) be repealed, and be void, and of none effect, as alſo all and euery ſuch clauſes, articles, branches, and matters conteined and expreſſed in the aforeſaid Act of Parliament, made in the ſaid eight and twentieth yeare of the Reigne of the ſaide late King your Father (s. cap.7.) or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, as whereby your Highneſſe is named or declared to bée illegitimate, or the ſaide Marriage betwéene the ſaid King your father, and the ſaid Quéen your Mother, is declared to be againſt the word of God, or by any meanes vnlawfull, ſhall bee, and be repealed, and be voide, and of no force nor effect, to all intents, conſtructions, & purpoſes, as if the ſame ſentence or Act of Parliament had neuer béene had ne made. And that the ſaid mariage had and ſolemnized betwéene your ſaid moſt noble Father King Henry, and your ſaid moſte noble Mother Quéene Katherine ſhall be definitiuely, clearely and abſolutely declared, déemed, & adiudged to be and ſtand with Gods law and his moſt holy word, and to be accepted, reputed, and taken of good effect and validity to all intents and purpoſes. 6 Be it enacted &c. that if any perſon or perſons within his Maieſties dominions of England and Wales, being maried, or which hereafter ſhal marry, do at any time after the end of the ſeſſion of this preſent Parlia. mary any perſon or perſons, the former huſband or wife being aliue, that then euery ſuch offence ſhall be Felony, & the perſon and perſons ſo offending, ſhal ſuffer death as in caſes of felony: & the party & parties ſo offending, ſhall receiue ſuch & the like proceéding, trial & execution in ſuch County where ſuch perſon or perſons ſhal be apprehended, as if the offence had béene committed in ſuch County, where ſuch perſon or perſons ſhal be taken or apprehended. Prouided alwaies, that this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend to any perſon or perſons, whoſe huſband or wife ſhall be continually remaining beyond the ſeas by the ſpace of ſeuen yeres together, or whoſe huſband or wife ſhal abſent him or herſelfe the one from the other, by the ſpace of vij. yeres together, in any parts within his Maieſties Dominions, the one of them not knowing the other to be liuing within that time. WHen chiefs Lords diſtraine in their fée for cuſtomes & ſeruices to them due, & there is a meane which ought to acquite the tenant, ſithence it lieth not in the mouth of the tenant, after ỳ he hath repeleuied the diſtres, to deny ỳ demand of the chief L. which auoweth in the K. Court, that the diſtreſſe is lawfully taken vpon his tenant, which is vpon the meane, & many haue béene ſore grieued by ſuch diſtreſſes, in ſo much as the meane (notwithſtanding that he hath ſufficient, whereby he may be diſtreined) doth make long delaies before hée will come into the Court to anſwere for his tenant vnto the writ of meane, and moſt hard of all when the meane had nothing: In caſe alſo

when the tenant was ready to doe his ſeruices and cuſtomes vnto his L. and the chiefe L. would refuſe to take ſuch ſeruices & cuſtomes by the hands of any other then of his next tenant, and ſo ſuch tenants in demeane loſt ſomewhiles the profits of their lands for a time, & ſomewhiles for their whole time, and hitherto no remedy hath beene prouided in this caſe: A remedie is prouided, & ordeined in this forme, that ſo ſoone as the tenant in demeane (hauing a meane betweene him and the chiefe Lord) is diſtreined, incontinent the tenant ſhall purchaſe his writ of meane. And if the mean hauing land in the ſame county, abſent himſelfe vntil ỳ great diſtreſſe be awarded, the plaintife ſhall haue ſuch day giuen him in his writ of great diſtres afore the comming whereof two coũties may be holden, & the ſhirife ſhal be commanded to diſtraine the mean by the great diſtres, like as it is contemned in the writ. And neuertheleſſe the ſhirife in two ful counties ſhall cauſe to be proclaimed ſolemnly, that the mean do come at a day contained in the writ, for to anſwere his tenant, at which day if he come, the plée ſhall paſſe betweene them after the common vſage. And if he doe not come, then he ſhall léeſe the ſeruices of his tenant & from thencefoorth the tenant ſhal not anſwer him in any thing, but the ſame meane being excluded, he ſhal anſwer vnto the chiefe L. for ſuch ſeruices and cuſtoms as the mean vſed to do before ỳ time. Neither ſhal the chiefe L. haue power to diſtrein, ſo lõg as the aforeſaid tenant doe offer him the ſeruices & cuſtomes due. And if the chiefe L. exact more then the meane ought to do, the tenant in ſuch caſe ſhall haue againſt him all ſuch exceptions as the meane ſhould, & if the mean haue nothing within ỳ K. dominion, the tenant ſhall neuertheleſſe purchaſe his writ of meſne to the ſhirife of the ſame ſhire, wherin he is diſtreined, & if the ſhirif return, that he hath nothing whereby he may be ſummoned, then ſhall the tenant ſue his writ of attachment, & if the ſhirif return, ỳ he hath nothing to be attached by, he ſhal neuertheles ſue his writ of great diſtres, & proclamation ſhalbe made in forme aboueſaid. And if the mean haue no land in the ſhire, where the diſtres is is taken, but hath land in ſome other ſhire, then a writ original ſhal iſſue to ſummõ ỳ mean, vnto the ſhirif of the ſame ſhire (where the diſtres is taken) & when it is returned by the ſhirif, that he hath nothing in his ſhire, a writ iudiciall ſhall iſſue to ſummon the meane, vnto the ſhirife of the ſame ſhire, in which it ſhall be teſtified that he hath land, and ſuit ſhal be made in the ſame ſhire vntill they haue paſſed vnto the great diſtreſſe, and proclamation as aboue is ſaid, where the mean hath lãd in the ſame ſhire, in which the diſtres is taken. And neuertheles ſuit ſhalbe made in ỳ ſame ſhire, where he hath nothing, as aboue is ſaid, of the meane, that hath nothing, vntill the proces come to the great diſtres & proclamation, and ſo after proclamatiõ made in both counties, the meane ſhall be foreiudged of his fée & ſeruice. And where it happeneth many times, that the tenant in demeane is infeoffed to hold by leſſe ſeruice, then the meane ought to doe vnto the chiefe L. when after ſuch proclamation the tenant hath atturned to the chiefe L. & the meane being excluded, the tenant muſt of neceſſity anſwere to the chiefe L. for all ſuch ſeruices & cuſtoms as the mean was wont to do to him. And after that the meane is come into the Court, and hath confeſſed, that he ought to acquite his tenant, or bée compelled by iudgement to acquite, if after ſuch confeſſion or iudgement it is complained, ỳ the meane doth not acquite his tenant, then ſhall iſſue a writ iudicial ỳ the ſhirife ſhal diſtreine the meane to acquit the tenãt & to be at a certain day before the Iuſticers, for to ſhew why he hath not acquited him before, and when they haue proceéded vnto the great diſtreſſe, the plaintife ſhall be heard. And if the plaintife can proue that he hath not acquited him, he ſhall recouer damages, & by award of the court, the tenant ſhall goe quite from the meane, & ſhall atturne vnto the chiefe Lord. And if he come not at the firſt diſtres, a writ ſhall goe forth to diſtreine him againe, and proclamation ſhal be made, & as ſoone as it is returned, they ſhall proceéd in iudgement as before is ſaid. And it is to be vnderſtood, that by this ſtatute tenãts are not excluded, but they ſhal haue a warranty of the meanes & their heirs, if they be impleaded for their tenements, as they haue had before: nor alſo the tenãts be excluded, but ỳ they may ſue againſt their meanes, as they vſed heretofore, if they ſée that their praces may be more auaileable by the old cuſtome, then by this eſtatute. And it is to wit, that by this eſtatute no remedy is prouided to any Meanes, but onely in caſe where there is but one onely Meane betweéne the Lord that diſtraineth, & the tenãt, & but in ſuch caſe where the mean is of full age, and but in ſuch caſe where the Tenant may attourne vnto the chiefe Lord, without preiudice of another then of his Meane, which is ſpoken for women, holding in dower, & tenants by the curteſie or otherwiſe for terme of life or in taile, vnto whõe, for certaine cauſes, remedy is not yet prouided, but (God willing) there ſhal be at another time. 1 Where an Act of Parliament, made the one and thirtieth yeare of King Henry the eight, for and concerning the enablement of profeſſed and religious perſons, to purchaſe to them and to their heires in fee ſimple, fee taile, for terme of life, for yeares, or at will, maners, lands &c. and other hereditaments, and things whatſoeuer, &c. Prouided &c. that nons of the ſaid religious perſons ſhall or may by vertue of this act, at any time hereafter, be taken, déemed or iudged for heirs or heires, or inheritable to any perſon or perſons, to any conſtruction or intent in the law, by reaſon of any former right, title, intereſt, matter or cauſe had, made, don, deſcended or growen to any reſpect or purpoſe, before their ſaid ſeuerall deraignements or departing our of their Religion, any thing before this act, or in the ſaid former act contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Anno 5. Ed. 6. cap. 13.

2 The King willeth and commandeth, that the Peace of holy Church, and of the Land be well kept and maintained in all points: And that common right be done to all, aſwell poore as rich, without reſpect of perſons. And becauſe the Abbots, & the Religious of the land, haue béens ouercharged and ſore grieued by the reſort of great men and others, ſo that their goods haue not béene ſufficient for themſelues, whereby they haue béene greatly hindred and impouerished, that they cannot mainteine themſelues, nor ſuch charity, as they haue béene accuſtomed to doe: It is prouided, that none ſhall come to eate or lodge in any houſe of Religion of any other Foundation then of his owne, at the coſts of the houſe, vnleſſe he be required by the Gouernour of the houſe before his comming thither. And that none of his owne coſts, ſhall enter and come to lie there againſt the will of them that be of the houſe. And by this ſtatute the King intendeth not, that the grace of Hoſpitalitie ſhould be withdrawen from ſuch as néede, nor the founders of ſuch Monaſteries ſhould ouercharge or grieue them by their often cōming. It is prouided alſo, that none, high nor low, by colour of kinred, affinity or alliance, or by any other occaſion, ſhall courſe in any parke, nor fiſh in any pond, nor come to eate or to lodge in the houſe or manor of a Prelate, or any other religious perſon, againſt the will of the Lord or his Bailife, neither at the coſt of the Lord, nor at his owne. And if he come in, or enter with the good will, or againſt the will of the L. or his Bailife, he ſhall cauſe no doore, locke, nor windowe, nor nothing that is ſhut, to be opened or broken by him ſelfe, nor any other, nor no maner of victuall, nor other thing ſhall take by colour of buying nor otherwiſe. And that none ſhall threſh corne nor take corne, nor any maner of victuall, nor other goods of Prelate, man of Religion, or any other Clerke, or lay perſon by colour of buying nor otherwiſe, againſt the will & licence of him, to whome the thing belongeth, or of the keeper, be it within market towne or without. And that none ſhal take horſes, Oxen, Ploughs, carts, Ships, or Barges, to make carriage without the aſſent of him to whome ſuch things belong. And if he doe it by the aſſent of the party, then incontinent he ſhall pay according to the conenant made betweene them. And they that offend againſt theſe acts, and thereof be attainted, ſhal be committed to the K. priſon, & after ſhall make fine, & be puniſhed according to the quantity & maner of the treſpaſſe, and after as the K. in his Court ſhall thinke conuenient. And it is to be knowen, that if they, to whom ſuch treſpaſſe was done, will ſue for damages, they ſhalbe thereto receiued, & ſhal be awarded & reſtored to the double. And they that haue done the treſpaſſe ſhall be likewiſe puniſhed in the maner aboueſaid. And if none will ſue, the King ſhal haue the ſuit, as for a thing committed againſt his commandement, & againſt his Peace. And the K. ſhall make inquiry from yere to yere, what perſons doe ſuch treſpaſſes, after as he ſhall thinke neceſſary & conuenient. And they ỳ be inuited by ſuch inquеſts ſhall be attached & conſtreined by the great diſtres, to come at a certaine day conteining the ſpace of a moneth, in the K. Court, or where it ſhall pleaſe the king: And if they come not at the day, they ſhall be diſtreined againe of new by the ſame diſtreſſe, for to come at another day, conteining the ſpace of fiue weekes at the leaſt: and if they come not then, they ſhal be iudged as attainted, & ſhal yeeld double damages (at the kings ſuit) to ſuch as haue taken hurt or damages, and ſhall make a grieuous fine after the maner of the treſpaſſe. And the King forbiddeth and commandeth that none from henceforth do hurt, damage, or grieuance to any Religious man, or perſon of the Church, or any other becauſe they haue denied meat or lodging vnto them, or becauſe ỳ any cōplaineth in the K. court, that he hath bin grieued, in any of the things aboue mentioned: And if any do, & therof be attainted, he ſhal incur ỳ paine aforeſaid.
